

University of Wollongong

living@
weerona college

Leanne Robinson has been the Student Residence Manager of Weerona College since February 2003 and has resided over the management of Gundi since 2005. Prior to this she has held various other roles in Accommodation Services including a tenure at Campus East, Weerona and in Central Office.

Leanne's commitment to education and her engagement with the University of Wollongong extends back to her Bachelor of Arts with majors in English & Women's studies and minors in Psychology and Education. She remains committed to achieving excellence in the UOW Residence experience through her membership with several peak bodies including the Australasian Association of College and University Housing Officers (AACUHO and ACCUHO-I), National Association for International Educators (NAFSA), and ASRA (Association for Student Residential Accommodation - UK). Leanne's previous roles have included working as an editor at Harcourt Brace Jovanovich and course coordinator at Worker's Educational Association (WEA). Leanne also holds a qualification to teach English language (CELTA) through Cambridge University.

Drawing from her varied background in accommodation services, publishing and education, Leanne's expertise and skills ensures that students of both the Weerona and Gundi communities enjoy a culture of diversity, learning, fun and responsibility. Her personal passions and interests in the environment, music, film, art, travel and theatre are reflected through the variety and quality of recreational and professional extra-curricular programs and support Weerona and Gundi offer their residents throughout the academic year.