

Faculty of Arts Annual 2-Day Postgraduate Conference 2005: Program

Thursday 17 & Friday 18 November 2005 / Function Room 4, UniCentre

our respondents are Dr Mark McLelland, Centre for Critical & Cultural Studies, University of Queensland and Dr Richard Howson, Dr Julia Martinez & Dr David Neil, Faculty of Arts

day 1: Thursday 17 November

10.00		Morning Tea and Welcome from Professor Andrew Wells, Dean of Arts & Associate Professor Paul Sharrad, Chair of the Faculty Research Committee
10.45	Professor Donna Kerner	Senior Visiting Fellow, School of Social Sciences, Media & Communication, Faculty of Arts Introduction
11.30	Annie Werner	“...as we belonged to them we should wear their ‘Ki-e-chook’” The tattoos of Olive Oatman
12.00		Q&A, discussion and response
12.30		Lunch
2.00	Kylie Smith	The Subject in History: or What is Freud doing in a History Thesis?
2.30	Deborah Gough	The Taxi Driver Who Would (not) be King: Changing Attitudes amongst Samoans to Status as a Reflection of Social Transformation?
3.00		Afternoon Tea
3.30	Robert Carr	The Struggle for Generational Legitimacy: Youth, Antiracism and Counter Movements in Australia Since the Mid-1990s
4.00		Q&A, discussion and response
5.00		Book Launch for Challenging Hegemonic Masculinity by Dr Richard Howson to be launched by Professor Peter Beilharz, La Trobe University, in room 19.1047
6.00		BBQ in the Faculty of Arts courtyard, below room 19.1047

day 2: Friday 18 November

10.00		Morning Tea
10.30	Rochelle Hurst	Adaptation as an Undecidable: Bluestone, Fidelity and Binarity
11.00	Dion Oxley	Food and Identity Construction in Hiromi Goto's Chorus of Mushrooms
11.30	Kimberley McMahon-Coleman	Fatal Attraction? A Non-Indigenous Feminist's Exploration of Masculinities in Indigenous Literature
12.00		Q&A, discussion and response
12.30		Lunch
2.00	Fern Wickson	From Risk to Uncertainty in the Regulation of GMOs: Social Theory and Australian Practice
2.30	Renee Kyle	The cruellest cut: the clinical response to deliberate self-harm
3.00		Q&A, discussion and response
3.30		Afternoon Tea and launch of Volume 3 of the e-journal, Alpheus and Closing Response from Dr Lenore Lyons, Director of CAPSTRANS