

Identifying Security Officers

The Security Staff uniform consists of a shirt that is bright yellow in the top front and navy blue in the lower quadrant of the shirt. The back of the shirt is all yellow with the words 'UOW Security' screen printed in navy blue. The front of the shirt bears the University's logo, with the words 'Security'. The shirt is worn with navy combat trousers with pockets. A black equipment belt is also worn.

Security Officers are required to wear a photographic security licence along with an Authorised Person Identity Card with photo identification.

Should any person approach you stating that they are a Security person and the above cards are not presented as described, you should contact the Security Office immediately.
