WHAT DO YOU DO IF YOU MISS THIS TEST

LODGE SPECIAL CONSIDERATION TO INFORM THE SUBJECT CO-ORDINATOR

YOU WILL NEED EVIDENCE TO SUPPORT YOUR CLAIM

MY RESPONSE

1. ACCEPT YOUR REASON AND APPROVE SPECIAL CONSIDERATION THEN THE OPTIONS ARE AS FOLLOWS;

   a. OFFER TO WEIGHT YOUR FINAL EXAM TO MAKE UP FOR THE MISSED IN CLASS TEST ie your final will be worth 70%

There will be 3 review tests given in weeks 3-13 inclusive

- You will be given up to 30 minutes to complete each Review test
- The format will be multiple choice and or short answer questions.
- The tutorials in which the Review tests are to be randomly distributed.

Exam will cover areas which have been reviewed in tutorials.

What if you Miss One of the Review Tests?

If you have a genuine reason for missing that test you should provide your tutor with a letter, with some documentation as to the reason. At the end of the session once we know how many tests you have missed I will determine how a solution will be achieved. You do not need to lodge a special consideration through SOLS for the in class test.

The solution could involve one of the following

a. an average of existing marks
b. a redistribution of the assessment weighting, ie increase the value of your Final exam.
c. I may decide that your case does not warrant any amendment to the existing mark.

There will be NO MAKE UP TESTS.

If you do not do any of the Review Tests and provide no documentation to your tutor then you will NOT GET ANY OF THE MARKS ALLOCATED for this assessment task.

Getting Your Results for the Review Tests

Tutors are responsible for marking the Review Tests. You will have your review tests returned, marked, the following week in your tutorial class. If you do not go to your tutorial it is your responsibility to contact the tutor and get your Review Test.

At the end of the session the tutors will return any uncollected Review Test to me. It IS your responsibility to organise collection of these Tests.

COMBINED RESULTS AVAILABLE VIA SOLS IN STUDY WEEK

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism means using the ideas of someone else without giving them proper credit. For example, that someone else may be an author, critic, journalist, artist, composer, lecturer, tutor or another student. Unintentional plagiarism can result if you don’t understand and use the acceptable scholarly methods of acknowledgement. Whether plagiarism is deliberate or unintentional, the University may impose penalties, which can be very severe. When it is desirable, or necessary, to use other people’s material, take care to include appropriate references and attribution. Plagiarism will not be tolerated and has led to expulsion from the University.

Students should visit the following University website and become familiar with the University’s policy on Plagiarism.

SECTION C: RULES, CODES OF PRACTICE & POLICIES

C1 UNIVERSITY POLICIES

</tbody>
</table>

* see brief explanation of policy below.

C1.1 Non-discriminatory Language

The Faculty of Commerce supports the University’s policy on the use of non-discriminatory language. It is the responsibility of students to ensure that they understand and abide by this policy. The policy is available at:

http://staff.uow.edu.au/eeo/nondiscrimlanguage.html
C1.2 Special Consideration Policy

The Faculty of Commerce recognises that it has a responsibility to ensure equity and consistency across its subjects for all students. Sometimes, in exceptional circumstances, students need to apply for special consideration in order to complete all assessable work.

The University applies strict criteria to the granting of special consideration. Before applying for special consideration students should carefully read the University’s policy. The policy can be found at:

C1.3 Student Academic Grievance Policy

The Faculty of Commerce aims to provide a fair, equitable and productive learning environment for all its students. The Student Academic Grievance Policy seeks to support the achievement of this goal by providing a transparent and consistent process for resolving student academic grievances.

Any student who has a grievance over a result should obtain a Faculty of Commerce Appeal of Assessment Form from the Schools or the Sub-Dean’s Unit. The student should firstly take the form to the marker/lecturer to discuss the matter and, if the student is still not satisfied, s/he should take the next step as outlined on the form.

Once the grievance has been considered by the Faculty, if the student still feels the situation has not been fully resolved s/he may consult the Dean of Students. However, the Dean of Students can have no input into the academic judgement of the lecturer and can only review the grievance to ensure proper procedure has been followed.

For more information, please consult the policy in full at

REFERENCING

WHY DO YOU NEED TO REFERENCE?

At University it is necessary to acknowledge the sources of information and ideas that you have incorporated in your assignments. Failure to do this thoroughly may result in accusations of plagiarism: this is the academic equivalent of stealing (because by not acknowledging someone else's work, you are presenting it as your own). Plagiarism is taken very seriously by the University and may result in expulsion from the University.

Referencing is not only about acknowledging other people’s work: accurate referencing and lists of references are beneficial when researching a topic as they allow the reader to follow up information and read further into the area. In a sense, references provide readers with clues to help them explore different avenues of a topic. This aspect of referencing will become more valuable to you as you progress in your studies.

There is a correct procedure that must be followed when referencing and using footnotes. Not complying with these set techniques and format will most likely result in loss of marks.

When writing an essay it is easiest to reference as you go, making sure you are writing down all relevant information. This will save hours trying to find the source again in the library.

THE HARVARD SYSTEM OF REFERENCING

The Faculty of Commerce uses the Harvard system of referencing. This system makes use of short references within the body of the text. It is supplemented by a detailed list of references at the end of the text, which provides all the information necessary to find the source material. Intext references include the author and year of publication, and where necessary the page number(s).

It is the responsibility of students to ensure that they are familiar with the Harvard system of referencing and that they use it accurately in all written work submitted.

Students should consult the following University Library website for a detailed explanation and eamples of the Harvard system of referencing.

CITATION OF ELECTRONIC SOURCES

It is necessary for students to reference all sources used in their written work, including file transfer protocol sites, worldwide web sites, telnet sites, synchronous communications (MOOs, MUDs, IRC, etc.) Gopher sites, and email, Listserv and Newsgroup citations.

It is the responsibility of students to ensure that they are familiar with the accepted Faculty of Commerce practice for referencing electronic material and that they use it accurately in all written work submitted.

Students should consult the following University Library website for a detailed explanation and eamples of how to reference electronic material.
