Who Should I See for Assistance about my Studies?

You can seek assistance from the Sub-Dean’s Unit (Commerce Central) or if you are an International student the International Unit (Commerce Central) for information and assistance relating to:

- course and subject advice
- advanced standing
- changing a major
- cross institutional study
- taking a Leave of Absence
- applying for special consideration
- advice on appealing a mark in a subject.

Why would I visit the:

Sub Dean’s Unit (Commerce Central)

The Sub Dean’s Unit in the Faculty of Commerce provides students with advice and information on many aspects of the University Rules and Regulations as well as information relating to their Commerce and Double degrees. The Faculty has two Sub Deans: Mr Ron Perrin and Ms Nadia Verrucci.

The Sub Dean has responsibility for but is not necessarily limited to:

- reviewing and monitoring the progress of all students within the Faculty;
- running a system for counselling students, including students whose results and/or progress towards a degree/diploma are not satisfactory;
- where appropriate, monitor and supervise the student advisory and schools’ liaison services of the Faculty;
- liaise, as appropriate with the Dean of Students on matter related to students;
- mediate where differences arise between students and academic units.

International Unit (Commerce Central)

The Commerce International Unit is responsible for the internationalisation of the Faculty of Commerce through support, management and coordination of all its international activities.

It is responsible for marketing and administration of the faculty's on and off-shore programs internationally, as well as the development and management of new and existing international agreements with overseas institutions and partners. The International Unit also assesses advanced standing (credit transfer) for international students.
Student Equity and Diversity Liaison Officer (SEDLO) (40.133)

The SEDLOs offer support, referral, information and assistance to all students of UOW. If you are having any sort of problem that is affecting your studies you are encouraged to seek advice from the Faculty SEDLO. The SEDLO may refer you to support services either within the Faculty, University or in the community that can best help with the specific problem.

Students with a disability, injury or medical condition

Students with a disability, injury or medical condition that affects your study should register with Disability Services upon enrolment.

The SEDLOs are able to act as a link between the student, Disability Services, the Faculty and appropriate Academic staff to ensure students are supported throughout their study.

If you are registered with Disability Services and are having difficulties with your studies you should see your relevant SEDLO as soon as possible so they can help you.

If you didn’t register at enrolment but are finding your disability or medical condition is impacting on your studies you should seek the advice of a Disability Liaison Officer straight away.

Students from Equity groups

A number of different groups of students referred to as equity student groups have been acknowledged as having specific barriers that can at times make it difficult to succeed in their university studies. Some of these groups include: Indigenous students, students from low socio-economic backgrounds, students for whom English is not their first language, students with carer responsibilities and students from rural and isolated areas.

SEDLOs offer a personal referral and support service for these students.

International students

The SEDLOs assist international students with issues which might arise in adapting to life at university and in Australia. They can provide information on a wide range of issues including:

Living and working in Australia

- Cultural Adjustment
- Accommodation, housing and tenancy problems
- Personal, relationship and family issues
- Financial matters
- Health
- Legal issues
- Accidents
- Working in Australia
- Making friends
- Assistance in critical incidents and emergencies
Academic and University

- Where to go to get help
- Assistance with administrative problems or procedures such as leave of absences, withdrawing from subjects or courses, refunds of fees etc
- Course progress rules and study load information
- Grievances and appeals
- Study problems
- Anything affecting your studies that you wish to talk about.

Visa

- Information on processes and who can help
- How your situation may affect your Visa
- Bringing family
- Problems or issues with DIAC.
General Information

Consultation with Staff

Teaching staff display times on their office doors indicating when they are available for consultation during session time. Your tutors will notify you of their consultation times at the start of session. During these hours you can normally expect to find a staff member present—allowing for short absences and exceptional circumstances when they are called away on other business—and you do not need an appointment but if the academic staff is using the Online Academic Consultation System, you can pre-book an appointment—http://commfac.commerce.uow.edu.au/ccs.

Please respect staff members’ consultation times and any other requests they make about contact and consultation, and recognise that at other times they have other duties which may limit their availability.

You are encouraged to speak to your tutor, subject co-ordinator and course co-ordinator regularly during the session, and particularly after receiving marked assignments. Your tutor, subject co-ordinator and course co-ordinator are available for guidance in specific subjects within a program and for more general issues about your progress in your degree.

Student Representation

Students have a voice in each Faculty. Students are elected to represent students each year. The representatives are invited to attend Faculty meetings and they can advise the Faculty on issues relating to students. There may also be vacancies for student representatives on Faculty and University Committees—www.uow.edu.au/commerce/cc/uow021710.html.

Tutorial Preference System (TPS)

TPS is used to allocate students into tutorial, laboratory, workshop and seminar classes within the Faculty of Commerce schools (Accounting & Finance, Economics and Management & Marketing)

It allows students to nominate subject class times they would prefer as well as times they wish to avoid.

- TPS is operational two weeks (10am on the Monday) prior to the start of Autumn and Spring session
- TPS is not used during Summer Session; contact the subject co-ordinator for further information
- During the TPS operational period, students may change their preferences as many times as they wish
- Processing of allocated preferences takes place on the Friday prior to Week 1 of session
• Students can view their allocations from 4pm on the Friday prior to Week 1 of session, and if dissatisfied with the allocation, can view the “left over” times and change their allocation as from 10am Monday Week 1 of Session

• Students who did not register preferences by the TPS closing date can select a class time from the “left over” times, from 10am Monday Week 1 of Session

• For more detailed information on the Commerce Tutorial Preference System visit: www.uow.edu.au/commerce/tutenrol/index.html

Note

Commerce Tutorial Preference System is not a “first-in-first-served” system; students have an 11-day period to enter in their preferences. After that time, they can only select tutorials that have vacant places in them.

The Credit Point System

Credit points are a basic measure of workload. A normal full-time annual workload is 48 credit points, and all subjects are given a credit point value. The academic year is divided into two main sessions Autumn and Spring, full time students usually enrol in 24 credit points each session, part time students usually enrol in 12 credit points each session or less. International students should be aware that they must enrol in a minimum of four (4) subjects in Autumn and Spring in order to meet their visa requirements. All Commerce subjects are 6 credit points each.

Subjects are allocated an identification label; the first number indicates the level of the subject eg: ACCY 100 is a 100 level or first year subject, ECON 208 is a 200 level or second year subject and MGMT350 is a 300 level or third year subject.

Prerequisites

A system of prerequisite subjects operates to ensure students prepared for any particular subject. Most subjects (except 100 level, Session 1 subjects) may have one or more prerequisite subjects which must be completed at a pass grade or better before enrolment in that subject is allowed. Prerequisites can only be waived by permission of the Associate Head of the School.

Co-Requisites

A co-requisite subject is a subject that must be studied at the same time as or prior to another subject.
Elective Subjects

After fulfilling the requirements for a Commerce Major including the core subjects, students may choose elective subjects (www.uow.edu.au/handbook/) to make up the balance of 144 credit points. The number of elective subjects students may require will vary according to their choice of Major and Minor/s. Double Majors have no electives as compulsory subjects total 144 or more credit points. Elective subjects may be undertaken from other Faculties.

Once students have decided on a Major, they are required to submit the information to Student Central.

Advanced Standing

Students who have completed subjects at pass grade or better at another Tertiary institution may request advanced standing for these subjects. Specified credit may be given for subjects which are equivalent to those offered by the University of Wollongong and count as prerequisites where the corresponding Wollongong subject is a prerequisite.

Advanced standing may be granted either as specified credit (exemptions from specific subjects) or unspecified credit (in the form of credit points granted towards your degree).

Pass Restricted (PR), Pass Terminating (PT) & Pass Conceded (PC) Grades

No more than one sixth of total credit points for a Bachelor of Commerce or Bachelor of Business Administration degree can be passed at Pass Restricted, Pass Terminating or Pass Conceded grade.

Technical Fail (TF)

Where a student gains a mark of 45 or greater (for 100, 200, 300 and 400 level subjects) or a mark of 50 or greater (for 800 and 900 level subjects) and does not meet a specified level in an assessment task required to pass the subject, a Technical Fail (TF) grade shall be used. Where a Technical Fail is given, the following applies:

a. failure of the subject;
b. TF (Technical Fail) without a mark will be granted;
c. a TF will be presented on the student’s Academic Transcript; and
d. the allocated mark of 44 will be used as the WAM calculation for subjects at all levels.

Applications for Special Consideration

In cases where a student is unable to complete an assessment task or attend a compulsory class due to illness or circumstances beyond their control, a special consideration application should be submitted.

To apply for Special Consideration, first log onto SOLS using your UOW email user name & password and select the special consideration link. A personalised application form will then appear for electronic completion and submission. Additional documentation may be required.

More information on special consideration and supplementary exams are available at—www.uow.edu.au/handbook/courserules/specialconsideration.html

Students Rights & Responsibilities

The Students Rights & Responsibilities website (www.uow.edu.au/student/rights.html) is a useful summary of relevant rules and policies, access to the full text of all University rules and policies can also be obtained from the online Policy Directory—www.uow.edu.au/about/policy/

Academic Misconduct

Students are warned that academic misconduct (for cheating or copying in examinations or assignments) will have serious consequences. Cheating in any part of a subject may bring failure in the whole subject. Cheating at examinations or deliberate plagiarism in assignments can result in exclusion from the University.

Plagiarism

Students must take care to avoid unintentional plagiarism. Plagiarism is the verbatim use of someone else’s work, as if it is your own. The someone else concerned may be an author, researcher, critic, lecturer, or even a fellow student. It is often desirable and may even be necessary to use other people’s ideas but you must not pretend that they are your own. Sources of information or ideas must be acknowledged in the text. Information on how to acknowledge such sources is available at—www.uow.edu.au/handbook/courserules/plagiarism.html

The Faculty of Commerce has introduced a mandatory online e-learning module designed to prevent plagiarism. Students undertaking first-year subjects will be required to complete this module. Further information will be provided in your subject outline.

Electronic Newsletter

All students who are enrolled in Commerce subjects receive a monthly electronic newsletter to their UOW email. Comm-E-News contains information for students about Faculty Student Societies, events, meetings organised by the societies, information on scholarships, job opportunities and general Faculty and University information—www.uow.edu.au/commerce/comm-e-news

Assignment Cover Sheet

Commerce students are required to attach an assignment cover sheet to all work submitted for marking. The cover sheet and other online forms are available from the Commerce Central website—www.uow.edu.au/commerce/cc/

Email Quota

All students of the University are provided with a UOW email account. Students are assigned an email quota on their University email account that limits the amount of storage available for their emails. You will receive an email letting you know when you are at 85% of your quota, once you reach 100% you will be unable to receive any further email.

Should you use up your quota you will need to delete stored emails, including any sent mail, to recover some available quota. You can check your available quota by logging on to webmail—see Managing your Webmail Settings: www.uow.edu.au/its/services/manage-mail/student.html

Internet Quota

Students are assigned an internet quota to allow the University to manage internet usage and safeguard the University’s capacity to continue to offer adequate Internet access for academic purposes. The quota is granted as a six monthly allocation at the beginning of each year and midyear and is currently set at 400Mb of off-net traffic with unlimited on-net traffic. The off-net traffic quota represents the limit the University has set for the incoming off-net traffic or downloaded off-net traffic, but not outgoing traffic, when using a University of Wollongong user account.

You will receive an email letting you know when you have used 25% of your quota, and again at 50% and 75%. Once you reach 100% you will be unable to access any external sites.

If you have exhausted your web quota and wish to have it raised for educational purposes, you will need to lodge an online application which will be sent to the faculty in which you are enrolled. Your past download history will be accessed and considered before a decision is made regarding the application.

Visit—www.uow.edu.au/its/services/manage-mail/to

- view your current web quota;
- lodge an application for additional quota;
- query an AARNet on-net/off-net address.

Webpage Sizes

The size of a page is measured in bytes and varies depending on the contents of the page. Size is particularly impacted when a page includes graphics, music etc, and given that website change continually, it is impossible to provide exact counts on the download size of particular websites. However, as a general rule of thumb, 1Mb of traffic represents:

- 500 pages of text (no graphics)
- 10 seconds of TV quality streaming video
- 10 seconds of CD quality streaming audio
- 100 text only emails—no attachments

A single webpage with a combination of text and images (no video or sound) would be approximately 5Kb. Viewing 100 webpages on an average site would be the equivalent of 5Mb of data. Further information on how to manage Internet Usage can be found by reading the Internet Usage Guidelines—www.uow.edu.au/its/services/manage-mail/

Choosing the Right Program for You

The following information may be of assistance in helping you choose.

The Bachelor of Business Administration programs are general business degrees with no majors, while the Bachelor of Commerce offers students the opportunity to major in one or more areas of study. Students may also undertake a minor in one or more areas in the Bachelor of Commerce.

For students who have not finalised their Bachelor of Commerce major/minor options by Spring of the current year, the Faculty of Commerce will hold a Major/Minor Information Session in October, where students can discuss their study options with relevant academic advisors.

Bachelor of Business Administration

This degree will provide students with a broad educational base in business as preparation for a variety of positions in corporations, small businesses and the public sector. Students undertake a series of foundation subjects that provide a solid basis for developing a higher-level understanding of all the principal areas of business including: accountancy, finance, information systems, marketing and management.

Dean’s Scholars—Bachelor of Business Administration

This degree provides an enriched educational experience for high achieving students that will encourage them to continue their studies through to the completion of honours and research degrees. This course is available to a limited number of candidates. Dean’s Scholars receive one to one academic mentoring and have special opportunities to attend workshops and seminars. The degree includes the awarding of a book allowance and access to work experience.

Bachelor of Business Administration (Event Management)

This program provides broad and comprehensive preparation for students wishing to pursue a career in event management. It is offered in conjunction and concurrently with the TAFE Diploma in Event Management. The Event Management component will be delivered by TAFE and result in the award of a Diploma in Event Management.

Bachelor of Business Administration (Hospitality)

This program provides broad and comprehensive preparation for students wishing to pursue a management career in the hospitality industry. It is offered in conjunction and concurrently with the TAFE Diploma in Hospitality Management. The Hospitality Management component will be delivered by TAFE and result in the award of a Diploma in Hospitality Management.
Bachelor of Business Administration (Tourism Management)

This program provides broad and comprehensive preparation for students wishing to pursue a management career in the tourism industry. It is offered in conjunction and concurrently with the TAFE Diploma in Tourism Management. The Tourism Management component will be delivered by TAFE and result in the award of a Diploma in Tourism Management.

Bachelor of Commerce

This degree is designed for students who would like to major in one or more of the principle areas of business and commerce. It is a suitable preparation for students who would like to become professionals in a particular discipline or want to pursue a general career in business. The degree consists of a core and a major(s). The core includes an integrating subject that is designed to bring students studying different majors together.

Dean’s Scholar—Bachelor of Commerce

This degree provides an enriched educational experience for high achieving students that will encourage them to continue their studies through to the completion of honours and research degrees. This course is available to a limited number of candidates. Dean’s Scholars receive one to one academic mentoring and have special opportunities to attend workshops and seminars. The degree includes the awarding of a book allowance and access to work experience.

Majors: Bachelor of Commerce

Once students decide on a Major, they are required to submit the information to Student Central.

ACCOUNTANCY

Bachelor of Commerce (Accountancy)

Whether working for a multinational company, a government agency, or in public practice, accountants play a pivotal role in advising management or their clients on the financial direction of the enterprise. This major prepares students for a career in all levels of industry, with an emphasis on integrating theory and practice that provides experience in the many diverse areas of accountancy. On completion, students will have the necessary skills and qualifications to work as an accountant. Graduates who have completed the prescribed degree program (the Accountancy major plus other specified subjects) can apply to join CPA Australia, the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia. Graduates are also eligible to apply for membership with the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants and the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants.
BUSINESS INNOVATION

Bachelor of Commerce (Business Innovation)

Business Innovation is a crucial source of competitive advantage and the prime mover of economic growth. The Business Innovation major is designed to enable students to thrive in an ever-changing business environment.

This major combines concepts from management, marketing and economics in a non-technical and accessible manner. These frameworks provide students with the tools and knowledge base to successfully create and adopt innovations.

FINANCIAL PLANNING

Bachelor of Commerce (Financial Planning)

Financial planners must have an understanding not only of finance but also of accounting, management and marketing. Financial Planning is the design of specific financial outcomes that meet a client’s unique needs, financial resources and objectives. It incorporates aspects of investment planning, taxation and social services planning, retirement planning, risk planning and estate planning.

This major develops the skills—including tax planning, investment analysis, portfolio management, risk and insurance planning, and estate planning—needed for recognition by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) and the Financial Planning Association (FPA), allowing graduates to work as financial planners for banks, life insurance companies or credit unions; funds managers; corporate entities; or to be self employed. The degree is recognised by the Financial Services Institute of Australasia (FINSIA) and is accredited with the Financial Planning Association (FPA) for entry into the FPA Certified Financial Planner Education Program.

BUSINESS LAW*

Bachelor of Commerce (Business Law)

This major provides graduates with the skills and knowledge base required to successfully understand the context, application and impact of law on the structures and transactions of business. The Business Law major covers topics including the law of business organisations, eCommerce law, contract law, taxation law, OH&S law and labour relations law; and complements studies in other disciplines by providing a legal perspective.

*This major is not available for students undertaking a double degree with the Faculty of Law.
ECONOMICS

Bachelor of Commerce (Economics)

Economics provides an understanding of the operation of the economy at both macro and micro levels. This major covers policy analysis relating to modern business, health care, the environment, the labour market, national economic management, and international monetary issues. Students will develop a historical understanding of the Australian economy, and will develop analytical tools that are applied to a wide range of topics affecting the national and international economy. Important issues explored include unemployment, the level of national debt, international trade, the extent of poverty and problems confronting developing countries.

Economics degrees provide the necessary skills and knowledge for a variety of careers or for further study. Students with an economics major have moved into careers in international, financial and policy institutions, and as economic advisers and policy analysts in the public sector and business organisations.

Bachelor of Mathematics & Economics

Students interested in Economics may also like to consider the Bachelor of Mathematics & Economics. More information can be found at—www.uow.edu.au/handbook/yr2008/ug/informatics/H08006873.html.

FINANCE

Bachelor of Commerce (Finance)

Finance studies the ways in which individuals, businesses, and other organisations raise, allocate and use money. Individuals need to allocate their savings among different investment alternatives; businesses and other organisations need to raise and invest capital to provide value for their owners, and individuals, businesses and other organisations use financial markets to exchange capital with each other.

The Finance major covers topics like business finance, financial markets and institutions, investment analysis, financial modelling, portfolio management, international finance, and risk and insurance. The Finance major is recognised by the Financial Services Institute of Australasia (FINSIA). Finance can be a rewarding career for those interested in analysing and solving financial problems. The study of finance can also complement studies in another area of Commerce, allowing students to develop a better understanding of the firm as a whole. Since finance underlies all business functions, a better understanding of financial decision-making is essential for business success.

Bachelor of Mathematics & Finance

Students interested in Finance may also like to consider the Bachelor of Mathematics & Finance. More information can be found at—www.uow.edu.au/handbook/yr2008/ug/informatics/H08006874.html.
HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Bachelor of Commerce (Human Resource Management)

Business firms and the public sector increasingly recognise that a major source of sustainable success is found in capable and productive human resources. The Human Resource Management (HRM) major focuses on the human side of organisations. The major is accredited by the Australian Human Resources Institute and is relevant to students wishing to pursue a professional career in HRM, as well as to those students who see people management as a necessary part of their future skills portfolio.

This major provides students with an understanding of human resource management theories, concepts and applications, including detailed study of theory and practices in key functional areas of HRM: job analysis, recruitment and selection, training and development, change management, organisational behaviour, organisational analysis, and occupational health and safety management.

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Bachelor of Commerce (International Business)

The International Business major gives you an awareness and understanding of business in other cultures and regions. It prepares you to respond to the intricacies of international business (including the impact of differing cultures and languages, issues posed by differing markets, and differing government regulations) within this rapidly growing environment.

You will gain an understanding of international trade theory and policy, strategic management, cultural diversity, communications and decision-making as they relate to contemporary international business issues; including financial management, employment relations, industry and trade in South-East Asia, and international marketing and management.

As advances in technology make the world ‘smaller’, employers are increasingly seeking graduates with international business skills. This major develops the skills needed for a career in transnational corporations or large NGOs (non-government organisations) in Australia and across most industries globally.

MANAGEMENT

Bachelor of Commerce (Management)

Management is the art and science of planning, coordinating and leading group efforts; the mobilising of human and material resources to achieve organisational goals. Managerial skills include the ability to make sound judgements on all issues that arise within a business, and to achieve objectives through organisational skills.

This major combines subject areas including business communications, organisational behaviour, human resource management, strategic management, operations management and quality management. It aims to develop a theoretical and practical understanding of the complexities of management; as well as skills in decision making, conflict resolution, administration and communication.

MARKETING

Bachelor of Commerce (Marketing)

A Marketing major provides graduates with the skills to generate products and services for which there is a defined customer need, and to position those products or services in the market with effective branding, promotion, pricing and distribution strategies. This major is geared towards problem-solving and management decision-making.

Through subjects including market research, internet marketing, and international marketing, students learn how to analyse, plan, organise, motivate and control the marketing process; as well as the communication skills and creative thinking that are essential to successful marketing.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

Bachelor of Commerce (Public Relations)

The Public Relations major produces graduates with the knowledge and skills to communicate with and build relationships between people, businesses, communities and social networks. On completion of this major graduates will be equipped to pursue a public relations career in business, government or the community sector.

In addition to management and marketing subjects, the major includes subjects in corporate branding, public relations concepts, strategies and campaigns.

SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

Bachelor of Commerce (Supply Chain Management)

Supply Chain Management (SCM) is a critical area of competitive advantage for organisations. SCM involves managing the flow of products, services and information from the suppliers, through value adding intermediaries, to the customer’s customer. It includes managing technical processes such as procurement, manufacturing and marketing within the firm; and relationships between organisations such as manufacturers, distributors, wholesalers and retailers. An understanding of people and relationships are essential skills in managing these relationships.

The Supply Chain Management major is designed to enable students to gain an overall understanding of supply chain structure and related interfaces. It provides the opportunity for students to specialise in a number of areas such as logistics, operations, systems thinking, quality and supply chain strategies.
Bachelor of Commerce (Honours)

An Honours degree is awarded for one additional year of study following the successful completion of a three-year degree with superior performance throughout the degree.

To qualify for the award of Bachelor degree with honours, a candidate who completes satisfactorily the subjects prescribed in the relevant course structure in the undergraduate handbook at the standard of achievement prescribed in Rule 8.35 (see www.uow.edu.au/handbook/generalcourserules/UOW028639.html) shall receive the corresponding honours degree with the class of honours as specified in those rules.

The Head/s of the relevant discipline and the Head of School must approve admission to this degree.

Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) is available in the following areas:

Accountancy
Business Innovation
Economics
Finance
Human Resource Management
International Business
Management
Marketing
Public Relations
Supply Chain Management
(Double majors are also permitted)

Further information regarding the Bachelor of Commerce (Honours) can be viewed at—www.uow.edu.au/commerce/cc/.

Bachelor of Commerce and Dean’s Scholar*—Bachelor of Commerce

Course Requirements

1. To qualify for award of the degree of Bachelor of Commerce a candidate shall accrue an aggregate of at least 144 credit points, including a major study, by satisfactory completion of subjects listed in the General Schedule.

2. Students must complete and pass all core subjects plus one of the approved BCom degree majors, double majors or a major and a minor and elective subjects.

3. Of the 144 credit points not more than 72 credit points shall be for 100 level subjects.

4. *Candidates for the degree of Dean’s Scholar—Bachelor of Commerce will be required to maintain a Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of at least 75 each year to continue in the program. They may also be permitted to take accelerated programs after their first session.

5. Students should note that a Pass Conceded, Pass Terminating or Pass Restricted grade at 300-level in any required subject for the selected major area does not satisfy degree requirements. A student wishing to graduate with a double major must obtain clear passes in both majors at 300-level to satisfy requirements.

6. Each major in the BCom requires 48 credit points and each minor requires 24 credit points as specified in the relevant schedules. The following rules apply:

a. Students must complete at least one major but may complete more if they wish. A single subject may count towards two different majors. However, such double counting can apply to only one, 6 credit point subject. Thus completing a second major will require completion of an additional 42 to 48 specified credit points. Where two or more subjects are common to two majors, the relevant Head of School will designate a replacement subject(s).

b. Students may complete one or more of the designated minors but the completion of a minor is not a degree requirement. A minor cannot be completed in the same discipline as the major, for example an Accountancy Major with an Accountancy Minor. A single subject may not count towards a major and minor or towards two minors; double counting is not permitted when completing a minor. Thus completing each minor will require an additional 24 specified credit points. Where one (or more) subject(s) is common to a major and a minor or to different minors, the relevant Associate Head of School will designate a replacement subject(s).

Other Degrees

Bachelor of Mathematics and Finance, Bachelor of Mathematics and Economics

Refer to the Faculty of Informatics

Double degrees with Bachelor of Commerce

Students may combine their Commerce studies with studies in a number of other Faculties and qualify for the award of two degrees. Double degrees aim to broaden a student’s knowledge and skill base and improve career options in competitive, increasingly interactive fields. Students must seek advice and approval from both Faculties before enrolment.

Students must seek advice and approval from both Faculties before enrolment.
Course Requirements

Candidates must satisfy the entry requirements of both the degree programs. Double degrees, where both degrees are normally of three years duration will be a minimum of 216 credit points and take a minimum of four years to complete. Double degrees, where one of the degrees is normally of four years duration will be a minimum of 264 credit points and take a minimum of five years to complete. Students may be given exemptions where equivalences exist between subjects.

For all double degrees, candidates are required to complete subjects from the Commerce Schedule, including core subjects and subjects to satisfy the requirements of one of the Commerce majors or a major/major, or major/minor combination. In addition to the Commerce requirements, candidates will need to complete one of the following:

Bachelor of Arts—Bachelor of Commerce

Students must:
1) complete at least 72 credit points, including a major study, for subjects listed in the Arts schedule, and including at least 36 credit points for subjects offered by member Units of the Faculty of Arts;
2) not more than 96 credit points for 100-level subjects may be undertaken for both degrees;
3) the Arts major study and the Commerce major are to be chosen from two different disciplines.

Bachelor of Communication and Media Studies—Bachelor of Commerce

Students must:
1) complete all the compulsory (core) subjects in the Bachelor of Communication and Media Studies and the required subjects of one of the major studies in that degree;
2) complete subjects from the Commerce Schedule, including core subjects, and subjects to satisfy the requirements of one of the Commerce majors.
3) complete not more than 90 credit points at 100-level;
4) where necessary, undertake elective subjects from the Course Structures of the Bachelor of Commerce, the Bachelor of Communication and Media Studies, or the General Schedule to ensure that at least 216 credit points have been completed.

Note: Students undertaking this double degree program may not complete both the Marketing major in the Bachelor of Commerce and the Advertising and Marketing major in the Bachelor of Communication and Media Studies.
Bachelor of Creative Arts—Bachelor of Commerce

Students must:

1) complete a major study for the Bachelor of Creative Arts comprising 108 credit points of compulsory subjects as listed in the Creative Arts Schedule.

2) complete the core Commerce subjects and the subjects required to satisfy at least one of the Commerce majors.

3) undertake, where necessary, elective subjects to ensure a total of 216 credit points have been completed.

Bachelor of Engineering—Bachelor of Commerce

Students must complete a minimum of 264 credit points as follows:

1) a total of at least 174 credit points of engineering subjects made up of the Engineering core or compulsory subjects and one of the engineering majors. The minimum of 174 credit points will be exceeded by some engineering program requirements;

2) where required, at least 12 weeks of approved professional engineering experience during the course. Exemptions may be given to part-time candidates who are in approved full-time engineering employment.

Bachelor of Commerce—Bachelor of Laws

Students must complete, satisfactorily and independently, each of (1), (2) and (3) as follows:

1) all compulsory Law subjects;

2) elective subjects to the value of 56 credit points from the LLB Schedule; to be eligible for the award of Honours, candidates must complete either LLB313 or LLB314;

3) subjects selected from the General Schedule, including the satisfactory completion of:

a) compulsory subjects;

b) an approved Commerce major except for a Business Law major; and

c) subjects with a value of at least 102 credit points, consisting of (a) and (b) and excluding subjects listed in (1) and (2), except, where the subjects in (a) and (b) have the prefix LAW, the equivalent LLB subjects must be substituted.

Bachelor of Science (Faculty of Science)—Bachelor of Commerce

Students must complete 90 credit points of subjects from the Science Schedule, including a Science major study. Any extra credit points required to achieve a double degree total of 216 credit points, additional to the Commerce and Science Requirements specified above, may be selected from the Commerce, Science or General Schedule.
Bachelor of Science (Faculty of Health and Behavioural Sciences)—Bachelor of Commerce

Students will be required to complete subjects from the Health and Behavioural Sciences Schedule approved by the Faculty of Health and Behavioural Sciences. Any additional subjects needed to complete a minimum of 216 credit points should be selected from the Health and Behavioural Sciences Schedule, the Commerce Schedule or the Science Schedule.

Bachelor of Psychology—Bachelor of Commerce

Students must complete a total of 264 credit points. This double degree fulfils the requirements needed to become a registered psychologist.

For the Bachelor of Psychology, students will be required to complete:

1) the 150 credit points of psychology subject requirements for the Bachelor of Psychology.

2) any additional subjects needed to complete the required 264 credit points selected from either the Health and Behavioural Sciences Schedule or the Commerce Schedule.

Bachelor of Journalism—Bachelor of Commerce

Students must:

1) Complete a major study for the Bachelor of Journalism comprising 108 credit points of compulsory subjects as listed in the Journalism Schedule

2) Complete a major study for the Bachelor of Commerce comprising the compulsory core subjects and an approved Commerce major to a total value of at least 102 credit

3) Undertake where necessary elective subjects to ensure a total of 216 credit points have been completed.

Bachelor of Medical Science—Bachelor of Commerce

Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: An introduction to microeconomics and its application to contemporary social and economic problems. Elementary economic theory and the necessary institutional framework will be developed.

ECON205 Macroeconomic Theory and Policy
Autumn  Wollongong  On Campus
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON101
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject analyses the major factors which determine economic behaviour in the aggregate and evaluate how alternative macroeconomic policies may improve economic performance. In doing so, the course examines the major determinants of aggregate demand equilibrium, namely consumption and investment demands, international factors, money and interest. Monetary and fiscal policies are examined using this analytic structure to determine the effectiveness of these policies for an open economy. Aggregate supply equilibrium is then analysed in terms of wages, prices and employment. The problems of inflation and employment are also considered along with possible wages policies. If time permits, longer term growth explanations of economic behaviour and associated policy prescriptions are briefly reviewed.

ECON208 Gender, Work and the Family
Autumn Wollongong On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: None
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject analyses the roles women and men play in the workforce and within the family. Topics will include: analysis of factors affecting recent trends in female and male labour force participation; gender differences in occupational patterns and earnings; the economics of discrimination; the role of the family in providing education, health care and other goods and services for its members; and the economic determinants of marriage and fertility.

ECON215 Microeconomic Theory and Policy
Autumn Wollongong On Campus
Spring Wollongong On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject provides the theoretical foundation of modern microeconomic analysis by building upon the basic concepts covered in introductory microeconomics. Topics include the free market system and its operation under market regulation, and the imposition of excise taxes and subsidies. The theory of consumer behaviour is developed and applied to household choice problems, the index number problem, methods of taxation, and intertemporal choice. The theory of production and its costs is discussed, and used to develop models of optimal choice by producers in the long run and short run, including optimal output expansion, optimal input substitution, responses to technological change, and economies and diseconomies of scale. Models of market organization are studied with emphasis on monopoly power, oligopoly (including models of Nash, Cournot, Bertrand, and Stackelburg equilibria) and monopolistic competition. Welfare effects of market behaviour and regulation are analysed. Game theory is introduced and applied to simple problems of strategic choice in duopoly markets. The nature and consequences of asymmetric information are studied (including adverse selection, moral hazard, the principal agent problem, and signalling).

ECON216 International Trade Theory & Policy
Spring Wollongong On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject is designed to provide an introduction to international trade theory and international trade policy. It will examine the theory, policies, practices and institutions of relevance to a country’s trade with other nations. The following broad questions will be addressed: Why do nations trade with each other? What are the gains and losses from free trade to the nations involved? What determines the pattern of international trade and production? What are the effects of various commercial policies on the nations involved and on the welfare of various groups within those nations? How does the foreign exchange market work and in what ways does it facilitate or impede international trade? What are the possible effects of exchange-rate policies on a country’s production, employment and price level? How is a country’s trade performance linked to its external debt and economic growth? How can trade affect the local and global environment?

Subject Description: This subject provides an introduction to mathematical techniques useful in business and economics. The main topics include marginal values, average values, elasticities, constrained and unconstrained optimisation, game theory, and the mathematics of finance. The mathematical techniques will be systematically presented and clearly illustrated in representative business and economic models.

ECON230 Quantitative Analysis For Decision Making
Spring  Bega  On Campus
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Spring  Shoalhaven  On Campus
Spring  Moss Vale  On Campus
Spring  Batemans Bay  On Campus
Spring  Loftus  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON121 or COMM121 or STAT131 or STAT231
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject details the role of quantitative analysis in the decision-making process. Problem-solving techniques will be studied with emphasis on their practical application. Topics may include: linear programming; integer programming; goal programming; network analysis; systems simulation; decision theory; and inventory and queuing models.

ECON231 Business Statistics and Forecasting
Not on offer in 2008
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON121 or COMM121 or STAT131 or STAT231
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject introduces students to the applications of multi-variate statistical analysis to problems in business and economics. These techniques will include multiple regression, discriminant analysis, factor analysis and cluster analysis. The subject also deals with the application of forecasting techniques, including smoothing methods, time series decomposition, and the Box Jenkins approach to problems. The emphasis will be on the use of various relevant computer packages.

ECON240 Financial Modelling
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: COMM121 or STAT131 or STAT151 or STAT252 or MATH141
Co-requisites: None
Exclusions: ECON231 and ECON221
Subject Description: This subject deals with the application of statistical techniques to financial decision-making. Students will use econometric methods and data to solve real-world problems by estimating and interpreting financial and business relationships. The subject covers a brief introduction to the mathematics of finance, regression analysis, hypothesis testing and the assumptions underpinning the classical regression model. It then provides a thorough treatment of model diagnostics, univariate time series modelling and forecasting, as well as applied multivariate cointegration techniques and the estimation of financial market volatility.

ECON251 Industry and Trade in East Asia
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: None
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject studies the neo-classical, structuralist and culturalists views on industrialisation in Asia using country specific examples. It examines trade and industry policy, investment flows, economic integration and the international monetary system. The causes of Asian growth and meltdown are analysed. The strategies to overcome the main economic problems and the recent developments in the Asia-Pacific region are emphasised.
ECON301  Monetary Economics
Autumn  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON101
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject focuses on the monetary aspects of the macro-economy. It comprises two parts. The first focuses on a comparison of the monetary transmission mechanism and policy implications arising from the Classical, Keynesian, Monetarist and New Classical theories. The second section analyses the money supply and its control, the conduct of monetary policy, money in the open economy, inflation, and the Australian financial system.

ECON302  Transition Economics
Not on offer in 2008
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON101 and ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: Emphasis will be placed upon transition issues arising for: the formerly centrally planned economies of Europe and Asia as they have moved towards market oriented economies; developed market economies in Europe as existing and prospective members of the European Union move towards a more advanced stage of trade, investment, and financial integration; developing market economies in East Asia as they attempt to achieve a higher level of economic development.

ECON303  Economic Development Issues
Autumn  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: Both ECON101 and ECON111 or any 72 credit points of subjects
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: Nation states have attempted to accelerate the rate and influence the pattern of economic growth and development with mixed results. Consequences of economic development have been enormous. Economic Development issues addressed are: the relationship between economic growth and development; the role of the market and the state; savings, investments and technical change; infrastructure and public goods; as well as the role of agriculture, industrialisation, international trade and economic co-operation, and population and human resource development.

ECON304  The Historical Foundations of the Modern Australian Economy
Autumn  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: 72 credit points of study including ECON101 and ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject focuses on the development of the Australian economy over the last century and a half from both a domestic and international comparative perspective. It seeks to enhance our knowledge about, and understanding of, the modern Australian economy and its international standing by reference to a longer term process of development stretching back close to early British settlement. Following an overview of Australian experience, the subject will be presented thematically drawing upon key microeconomic and macroeconomic questions. Principal topics will include: growth trajectories and economic fluctuations; structural change and development; capital markets and financial institutions; population and immigration; human capital and labour supply; living standards and welfare; manufacturing and international business; market power; the development of a corporate economy; economic policy especially tariffs and competition; economic debates; regional engagement in Asia and globalisation. There will be an opportunity to analyse and discuss original historical documents and to write a research essay.

ECON305  Economic Policy
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON205 and ECON215
Co-requisites: None
Exclusions: Not to count with ECON207
Subject Description: This subject introduces students to some of the important macroeconomic and microeconomic policy issues facing governments in Australia and overseas. Government policy makers face questions such as how to best stimulate economic growth, how to best respond to various forms of market failure and how to best promote a competitive national economic environment. This subject introduces students to some of these issues in details and sets out some of the current economic thinking with regard to these questions. Students will be required to analyse applied research from the economics literature and draw on material from related areas such as political science.
ECON307  International Monetary Economics
Not on offer in 2008
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON101
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject is a study of monetary aspects of international economics. It comprises two parts. In the first we examine theoretical approaches to the balance of payment and exchange-rate determination. In the second, the subject analyses selected issues in international monetary economics of topical interest.

ECON308  Labour Economics
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject studies labour supply, labour demand and wage rate determination in a market-orientated economy. The emphasis is on the development and application of economic theory rather than on an institutional approach. Several areas of application are drawn from the following list and analysed in some detail: the effects of welfare programs on labour-market participation and hours of work, the effects of imposing a minimum wage in both competitive and non-competitive labour markets, the theory of human capital and its use in explaining observed earnings differentials, an explanation for occupational wage differentials, discrimination in the labour market, the rationale for labour unions, the economic impact of labour unions, causes of unemployment. Examples relate mostly to the Australian and US labour markets but some comparisons are drawn with labour markets in other countries.

ECON309  Environmental Economics
Spring  Moss Vale  On Campus
Spring  Batemans Bay  On Campus
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Spring  Bega  On Campus
Spring  Loftus  On Campus
Spring  Shoalhaven  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject will provide a comprehensive analysis of environmental issues using both the traditional theory of economic externalities and the newer analysis of ecologically sustainable development. Both approaches will be used to explain the economic aspects of and evaluate environmental policy in Australia and developing countries.

ECON310  Cost Benefit Analysis
Not on offer in 2008
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON215
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject investigates the theoretical foundations and practical techniques of social cost benefit analysis (CBA). Topics include: the name and scope of CBA, the welfare foundations of CBA including Pareto optimality and social welfare functions, identification of costs and benefits, methods of valuation of costs and benefits in market and non-market situations, the theory and use of shadow prices, CBA decision criteria, time preference and the social discount rate, and CBA sensitivity methods. The limitations of CBA methods and ethical considerations are discussed. Students will develop and practice appropriate spreadsheet skills that facilitate the economic evaluation of complex projects in situations where benefits and costs occur over extended periods of time.

ECON311  Natural Resource Economics
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: The main objective of the subject is to develop skills in the economic analysis of natural resource problems. The subject consists of two broad sections, namely: the generalisation of theoretical frameworks for the utilisation of natural resources; and the application of these theoretical frameworks to the management of specific natural resources and to the formulation of appropriate policies. The topics covered include: optimisation frameworks for renewable and non-renewable resources; models for optimal resource use over time; energy resources; mineral resources; water resources; forestry resources; natural environments; and issues concerning pollution.

ECON312  Industrial Economics
Autumn  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject provides the theoretical basis for analysis of firm structure, conduct and performance. It particularly focuses on issues related to the implementation of competitive policy from both a national and international perspective.
ECON315  Applied Microeconomics
Not on offer in 2008
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: Microeconomics applied to a variety of topics and social problems. The areas of application studied vary from year to year but include such topics as the economics of health care, education, working women, migration, the arts and crime.

ECON316  History of Economic Thought
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON205 and ECON215
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject provides a review of the evaluation of economic ideas through the development of differing schools of thought in economics. The subject focuses on issues which provide a basis for discussion of the criticism and alternatives suggested by the classical, neoclassical, behavioural, Austrian, modern institutionalists and post Keynesian schools.

ECON317  Economics of Health Care
Not on offer in 2008
Credit Points: 8
Pre-requisites: None
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject surveys economic aspects of the Australian health-care system. Topics covered will include the supply and demand for health services, health-care delivery systems, health insurance, program evaluation and medical decision-making. Government policies influencing all aspects of health care will be analysed and evaluated.

ECON319  Electronic Commerce and the Economics of Information
Autumn  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: None
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject analyses the impact of electronic commerce on the markets for consumer goods and services and factors of production. Reasons for the dramatic increase in the use of electronic commerce and its effects on consumers, business firms and the wider community will be explored. Special attention will be given to the implications for small and medium-sized firms and the impact of electronic commerce on the globalisation of markets. The subject analyses electronic commerce in the context of the economics of information, technology and transaction costs and investigates the role and value of information in decision making.

ECON320  Economics of Small and Medium Enterprises
Autumn  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: The subject analyses the impact of entrepreneurs/small medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) on important areas of the economy such as innovation, employment creation, trade and investment. The formulation of appropriate public policies with respect to SMEs will also be examined. Recent developments in the economic theory of business enterprises, backed up by case studies of individual firms, industries and countries, will form the basis of the subject. Topics covered will represent a blend of the theory and practice of small business and enterprise development, and will include examining the links between firm size and performance, the distinct roles of different sized firms, and the relationship between firm size and innovation.

ECON322  Mathematical Economics
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON122 or ECON222
Co-requisites: None

commerce subject listing

macroeconomics. The topics include consumer demand theory, compensated demand functions, production theory, cost functions, market demand and supply functions, models or market structure and macroeconomics of open economy. Mathematical techniques include linear algebra, optimisation, differential and integral calculus. Particular attention will be given to economic policy analysis using mathematical models.

ECON327 Advanced Econometrics
Spring Wollongong On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON221 or ECON231 or MARK239
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: The subject consists of two parts. The first part focuses on the basic concepts in understanding and modelling the behaviour of time-series data (time-series analysis) in economics or related fields and the major linear time-series models usually used. The second part deals with the foundation and applications for more realistic or policy-oriented situations using the method of many-sector econometric models (1) using these data, and (2) consisting of sets of many regression equations, or (3) consisting of sets of many jointly dependent or simultaneous equations.

ECON331 Financial Economics
Spring Wollongong On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON111 and either ECON121 or COMM121
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject deals with investment in production capacity, portfolio analysis, debt accumulation, insolvency and liquidation. Optimal control methods are used for analysing the efficient trajectories of capital investment and borrowing. Portfolio choice and producers' choices of activity sets are analysed within a mean-variance expected utility maximisation framework incorporating the concepts of risk aversion, costs of risk bearing and diversification.

ECON332 Managerial Economics and Operations Research
Not on offer in 2008
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON121 or COMM121
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject develops and applies a variety of quantitative techniques to economic and managerial decision-making. It is an extension of ECON 228/230 and covers a wide range of quantitative analyses such as forecasting techniques, Markov process models, PERT, CPM and specialised network algorithms, risk preference analysis, transportation and assignment models and quadratic and nonlinear programming.

ECON333 Conflict and Co-Operation
Not on offer in 2008
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON122 or ECON222
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: The subject will introduce students to the study of game theory as a tool for analysing a wide range of situations, particularly in the social sciences. The subject will focus on the application of basic game-theoretic concepts to analyse these situations, and will cover both non-cooperative and cooperative games. The latter will include the examination of issues in communitarian economics (such as the economics of organisations like the WTO, the IMF, World Bank, and other NGOs). Students will participate in simple game-playing exercises designed to reinforce and further their understanding of the concepts.

ECON334 Global Economics
Not on offer in 2008
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON101 and ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject introduces students to major contemporary global economic issues such as global economic growth and per-capita income: the external debt crisis: integrated international capital-markets; European monetary unification and its potential; free-trade negotiations and the formation of free-trade zones; the transition of centrally planned economies to market economies; and the economic implications of global environmental and resource degradation and the need for international co-ordination and co-operation.

Subject Description: In an increasingly dynamic environment, failure to engage in marketing research activity leads to disadvantages in the strong competitive market place. Mastering marketing research is necessary for successful marketing. This subject will focus on the practice of marketing research by integrating theory and application. Applied Marketing Research B (MARK202) continues where Applied Marketing Research A (MARK201) ends and encompasses the entire marketing research process starting with the fieldwork phase: organising, supervising and conducting fieldwork, entering data, analysing data, drawing conclusions and reporting the findings.

MARK 213  Marketing Principles
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Autumn  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: None
Co-requisites: None
Exclusions: Not to count with MARK101
Subject Description: The subject examines marketing’s role in the economy and the nature of marketing systems. After considering the role of the marketing function in the organisation, the marketing decision process is examined. The identification of market opportunities, the selection of target markets from market segmentation, and buyer behaviour is covered. Marketing mix decisions are dealt with in the context of the marketing program.

MARK217 Consumer Behaviour
Autumn Bega On Campus
Autumn Batemans Bay On Campus
Autumn Shoalhaven On Campus
Autumn Moss Vale On Campus
Autumn Wollongong On Campus
Autumn Loftus On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: (MARK101) or (MARK213) or (MARK293)
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: Consumer Behaviour involves gaining a greater understanding of the consumers as individuals by studying perception, learning and memory, motivation and values, personality, lifestyles, attitudes and attitude change. Additionally the content of this subject focuses upon consumers as decision makers, involving an examination of the entire purchase process. Other areas of interest include household and organisational decision making, and the influence of culture on consumption.

MARK270 Services Marketing
Spring Wollongong On Campus
Spring Bega On Campus
Spring Shoalhaven On Campus
Spring Batemans Bay On Campus
Spring Moss Vale On Campus
Spring Loftus On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: (MARK101) or (MARK213) or (MARK293)
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject covers the practice of marketing of services. Significantly, this incorporates both conceptual and practical issues not always evident in the existing marketing literature covering the marketing of products. As well, the global growth of the service sector has focused attention on the marketing function for organisations serving this sector. This subject is designed to equip practitioners to function effectively in the expanding world of services marketing.

MARK301 Internet Applications for Marketing
Spring Wollongong On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: (MARK101) or (MARK213)
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject deals with the issues facing internet users to establish the distinctly different environment in which people operate online. This grounding is then used as a basis to build an understanding of the internet to key applications in marketing such as research, adding value in the areas of product, distribution, pricing and promotion. It is a consumer focussed perspective that most students will be able to relate to from their own experience and therefore suitable for a 2nd or 3rd year undergraduate subject.

MARK317 Business to Business Marketing
Autumn Wollongong On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: (MARK101) or (MARK213) or (MARK293)
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject will give students an appreciation of the differences between organisational and consumer customers. Organisation buying practices are different from the processes of consumers and as a result marketing strategy and operations have distinctly different imperatives. With a much higher level of rationality in decision making, there is a far greater focus on product management and innovation as a source of competitive advantage. There is also a greater focus on logistics and distribution functions as reliability of supply is a key need of customers, particularly when product delivery has to interface directly with customer operations. The central role of personal selling in the promotional mix is also dealt with in depth as it is critically important in generating sales and maintaining relationships with customers.

MARK320 Social Marketing
Spring Wollongong On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: (MARK101) or (MARK213)
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: Social marketing seeks to change strongly ingrained behaviour or firmly held beliefs in a manner that benefits individuals and society at large. Examples of social marketing include campaigns to reduce or prevent smoking, alcohol consumption, drug use, domestic violence and unsafe driving. This subject examines how to design a step-by-step program that will move the target audience from indifference to action and ultimately maintenance. This is achieved by applying marketing techniques and concepts to the solution of various social problems. This subject will use a case-study approach to teaching the key concepts and skills of social marketing, drawing on current and historic Australian and international campaigns.

MARK333 Marketing Communications & Advertising

Autumn Wollongong On Campus

Credit Points: 6

Pre-requisites: (MARK101) or (MARK213) or (MARK293)

Co-requisites: None

Subject Description: Marketing communications (marcoms) come in many forms. Examples include, but are far from limited to, mass media advertising, promotions, celebrity endorsements, and after-sales support. This subject aims to develop students’ appreciation of the role that marcoms play in the company’s marketing efforts as well as how prospective customers process and are influenced by marcoms. The subject has a managerial perspective and by the end of the subject students will be able to both manage and critically evaluate marcoms campaigns.

Autumn Wollongong On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: MGMT110
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject is an introduction to knowledge management (KM). KM is becoming increasingly important as organisations switch their focus on managing tangible assets (e.g. plant) to intangible assets, such as knowledge, in search of competitive advantage in the knowledge economy. The aim will be to provide students with the skills to manage intangible knowledge resources. Topics include knowledge definition; the processes of creation, transfer, and usage; as well as human resource management strategies for knowledge workers; measurement of knowledge value; international context; and communities of practice.

MGMT215  Small Business Management
Autumn  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ACCY101 or ACCY100 & ACCY102
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: Smaller enterprises are becoming increasingly important to the economic well being of many nations. This subject gives students an opportunity to develop an awareness of the role of the small enterprise in the economy and society, and the key factors involved in their management. The subject is oriented at the study of smaller enterprise rather than training the student to start and manage a small firm itself.

MGMT218  Competitive Analysis
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: ECON111
Co-requisites: None
Subject Description: This subject develops models and techniques for measuring and understanding the complexity of competition. Case studies and empirical analysis are used to show how firms can analyse the industry in which a firm is located, understand its competitors and its own position, and grasp how this might influence its business strategy. Topics include: Structural analysis of industries; competitor analysis; competitive strategies; development of generic strategies; buyers/suppliers strategy; strategy in different industrial environments; strategy formulation in a multinational competitive environment.

MGMT220  Organisational Analysis
Spring  Wollongong  On Campus
Credit Points: 6
Pre-requisites: MGMT110
