TO BE COMPLETED BY SUPERVISOR

I certify that:

- Yes No The creative work and supporting documentation conform to the requirements as stipulated in the subject description for CREA402;
- Yes No The creative work and supporting documentation include a certificate indicating the extent to which the work has been completed by the candidate;
- Yes No The creative work and supporting documentation is properly presented and is prima facie worthy of examination;
- Yes No Any instances of inadequate presentation were pointed out to the student for correction before the work was submitted;
- Yes No The candidate has completed an approved program of study and research as required.

Signature/s: Date:

1. This certificate is for the information of the Faculty and will not be sent to examiners. It is to be submitted on completion of the creative work and with the three (3) spiral bound copies of the creative work in written form and/or supporting documentation to Creative Arts Central (25.113) by the due date.
2. This certificate presumes that the creative work in written form and/or supporting documentation has been read by the supervisor and checked for grammar and presentation.
3. Supervisor/s should delete part(s) of the certificate which they are unable to certify. However, if a supervisor is unable to certify that the creative work and/or supporting documentation conforms to all of the requirements as outlined above, the work will not be submitted for examination.
4. If any recommendations made to the student have not been incorporated into the creative work and/or supporting documentation, a statement from the student defending his/her position must be attached to this certificate.
