The Master of Education is a higher degree for teachers and educators wishing to pursue advanced studies in their area of interest. Many subjects require the application of research and theoretical insights into actual practice, and it is desirable that students have some full-time workplace/teaching experience.

The Master of Education (TESOL) can be completed in 1 year (full time), or up to 3 years (part time). To be considered a full time student you need to be enrolled in a minimum of three subjects in the one intake.

Suggested Course Progression

For a student wanting to complete two subjects per intake, the recommended progression would look like this:

In this example, a part time student would take 1.5 years to complete the degree – Autumn, Spring, EDU November and Autumn of the following year. Students can elect to take more or less subjects per session depending on their situation.

EDGT984 is a core subject for the Master of Education (TESOL), we recommend taking this in the first intake. Elective choices can be found here: <http://www.uow.edu.au/handbook/yr2012/pg/educ/H12006185.html>. We recommend you select your electives based on compatibility with your employment requirements and interests.
