

The Robert Hope Memorial Prize

2004 Winner

Yayaa Tsamenyi graduated with a double degree Bachelor of Commerce (distinction) - Bachelor of Laws (Honours Class 1) from the University in 2004.*

Yayaa achieved an exceptional level of academic performance throughout her studies. Among other awards, she was the recipient of the Faculty of Law Advisory Committee Prize for Best All-Round Student. She was a member of the Golden Key International Honour Society and represented UOW in the Law Student's Association Mooting Competition.

She volunteered with the Sydney Regional Aboriginal Legal Services, was involved in the Illawarra Youth Justice Network and tutored at UOW in the Faculty of Commerce. She also volunteered as an English teacher in her country of origin, Ghana.

For more information, visit the Robert Hope Prize website.

