PLAGIARISM: Failure to give credit to sources consulted, even if they are paraphrased or reworded is called plagiarism. The University imposes penalties on students who plagiarise another's work, whether it is intentional or not. The University of Wollongong has a strong policy against plagiarism. http://www.uow.edu.au/handbook/course/rules/plagiarism.html PLEASE NOTE: Students must retain a copy of all work completed and submit all written assignments into the Turnitin system before submitting the hard copy to the School reception or lecturer. A printed copy of the 'originality report' obtained from the Turnitin system must be attached to the assignment. Any assignment received which does not have an attached report will not be marked and therefore be awarded a 0 for this assessment task.	DECLARATION: I understand the definition and consequences of plagiarism. I declare that this assignment is original and has not been submitted for assessment elsewhere, and acknowledge that the assessor of this assignment may, for the purpose of assessing this assignment: reproduce this assignment and provide a copy to another member of faculty; and/or communicate a copy of this assignment to a plagiarism checking service (which may then retain a copy of this assignment on its database for the purpose of future plagiarism checking). Signature: _____
