For individual consultations, please make an appointment at least the day before, to ensure availability: email rwalker@uow.edu.au or leave a message at the SBS front desk. You may request an online appointment if there is no time available for face-to-face consults.

Also, remember to bring a sample of your writing, subject guide and details about your current assignment question for individual or group appointments.

You may request a small group appointment to get advice on group presentation or a group report writing for a specific assignment, or suggest an extra workshop topic on an issue that other students would also be interested in.
