

PhD (Clinical Psychology)

Course code 209

A suggested structure for the 4 years

(Note: an individual plan is worked out for each candidate with the Director of Clinical Training that primarily takes into account factors related to the timing of the research work. In general, more research is aimed to be completed in the early phase of the program).

Total degree = 192 credit points

Clinical training = 48 cp (four semesters comprising six 8cp coursework-practicum subjects)

Research training = 144 (six semesters of 16cp thesis subjects and two semesters of 24cp thesis subjects)

Year 1

Semester 1

THES916 Research Thesis (16cp)

GHMC952 Principles of Psychotherapy (8cp)

Semester 2

THES916 Research Thesis (16cp)

GHMC954 Cognitive Behavioural Therapies (8cp)

Year 2

Semester 1

THES924 Research Thesis (24cp)

Semester 2

THES924 Research Thesis (24cp)

Year 3

Semester 1

THES916 Research Thesis (16cp)

GHMC951 Child and Adult Assessment and Psychopathology (8cp)

Semester 2

THES916 Research Thesis (16cp)

GHMC953 Neuropsychology and Neuropsychiatric Disorders (8cp)

Year 4

Semester 1

THES916 Research Thesis (16cp)

GHMC955 Health and Wellbeing (8cp)

Semester 2

THES916 Research Thesis (16cp)

GHMC956 Special Groups and Methods (8cp)