LAW TEXT CULTURE

VOLUME 16: CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Deadline: 30 September 2011

The Editorial Board of Law Text Culture is seeking proposals for the 2012 special edition of the Journal (Volume 16), due for release in December 2012.

Law Text Culture is an interdisciplinary journal published by the Legal Intersections Research Centre at the University of Wollongong in Australia. It aims to produce fresh insights and knowledges along three axes of inquiry:

- Politics: engaging the relationship of force and resistance;
- Aesthetics: eliciting the relationship of judgment and expression;
- Ethics: exploring the relationship of self and other.

Law Text Culture publishes a broad range of work from artwork and fiction to the traditional scholarly essay. The Journal is trans-continental and peer reviewed and proposals are encouraged to incorporate work that is both domestic and international.

Proposals should include:

- a concise description of the proposed theme;
- a draft call for papers;
- brief details of the guest editors;
- an indication of the intended authors and how they are to be contacted (eg whether the proposal arises out of a seminar series, conference or workshop); and
- the range of genres (eg poetry, scholarly essays, artwork etc) expected to be included in the edition.

Proposals should be no more than 500 words and should be sent to the Managing Editors by 30 September 2011. Persons considering submitting a proposal are invited to contact the Managing Editors if they have questions or require information about the responsibilities of guest editors.

Details on the editors and themes of previous editions of Law Text Culture are available at: http://ro.uow.edu.au/ltc/all_issues.html
