Research Assistants
- Summer Employment Positions –

The Faculty of Law is seeking high achieving and motivated law students from second year and above (as at 2007) to undertake paid positions as Research Assistants during the 2007 - 2008 summer.

Research assistance is needed across a range of research projects by members of staff of the Faculty of Law. Topic areas are wide-ranging and include business law, criminal law, corporations law, environmental law, human rights law and international law.

Research assistants find it useful to accumulate relevant work experience and professional references. Successful candidates might work across a range of topics, thereby accumulating working hours, and might extend their employment as a research assistant through the academic year. Working hours are extremely flexible (but not deadlines!). Researchers will be paid at University of Wollongong Rate 3 or 4 ($24.92 or $28.66 per hour).

You must have a strong academic record with an average mark of no less than 70%. You will need good information literacy, analytical and writing skills. Please provide a copy of your curriculum vitae, including details of subjects undertaken and grades achieved and any relevant work experience, together with a sample of your written research work.

Applications should be provided to: Gregory Rose, Room 67.204, Tel: 4221 4120, E-mail: grose@uow.edu.au
