

TIMETABLE FOR FIRST YEAR LLB PROGRAM - AUTUMN 2009

Students enrolled in the first year of any of the courses listed above in 2009 will be assigned to one of 8 groups. Each group will consist of approximately 25 students. The timetable has been organised in such a way that you will be with the same group of students for seminars in each of your subjects. This means that you are not required (or permitted) to choose individual subject seminar slots from the timetable. You will be allocated to one of the 8 groups, and will attend seminars in accordance with the timetable for your group. (For those subjects which have a lecture all students will attend at the same time.)

The 8 groups, and their timetables, are:

Once you have been allocated to a group, you may not switch to another group, or any of the seminars associated with another group, without the express approval of the First Year Coordinator. Approval will only be granted in exceptional circumstances. Work commitments and travel arrangements cannot be taken into account.

During the university session, permission to attend a seminar other than your own, on a 'one off' basis, must be sought in advance from the relevant subject coordinator.
