

POSITION AVAILABLE

WOLLONGONG LAW FIRM

Busy local law firm seeking either admitted NSW solicitor or soon to be admitted law graduate to work in and develop our litigation practice with a particular emphasis on Family Law. We are seeking an applicant with the following attributes:

- excellent spoken and written communication skills
- an ability to empathise with clients in stressful circumstances
- a demonstrated capacity to work with minimal supervision
- a commercial mindset and a willingness and ability to attract quality new clients with a view to establishing repeat clientele
- a strong work ethic demonstrated by a desire to achieve the best possible outcomes for clients
- a commitment to ethical standards of practice
- a willingness to fit in with the work methods and culture of the firm
- a commitment to practising long term in the local area.

The position is full time and remuneration is negotiable based on experience level.

Please forward a letter addressing the specific points above together with resume and referees to:

Adrian Clayton
AR Yates and Co. Solicitors
P.O. Box W25
Wollongong West
2500
or email adrian@aryates.com.au