

V. Scholarships and Meritorious Awards

My academic research awards and scholarships indicate my competency to undertake sound research and to score above the average. This experience will enable me to undertake good consultancy work for the African coast on climate change.

1. Australian Government Endeavour Award International Postgraduate Research Scholarship (IPRS) for doctor of philosophy studies in Geology at the University of Wollongong, Wollongong, AUSTRALIA from 2005 to 2009 to undertake PhD by research on the Application and Evaluation of Shoreline Segmentation Mapping Approaches to Assessing Response to Climate Change on the Illawarra Coast, South East Australia.
2. University Postgraduate Scholarship (UPS) for living expenses at the University of Wollongong, Wollongong, AUSTRALIA from 2005 to 2009 for living expenses.
3. Carl Duisberg Gesellschaft (CDG) Scholarship, from March to August 1998 to undertake international research expedition on the 'Protection and Utilization of the Oceans' held at the Centre for Marine and Climate Research, University of Hamburg, Germany.
4. German Academic Exchange Program Scholarship (DAAD) for Masters of Science Degree studies at the University of Nairobi, Nairobi, KENYA from 1990 to 1992 to undertake Masters by Research on Geomorphology and Sedimentology of the Mombasa –Diani area: Implications to Coastal Zone Management.