WELCOME TO ORIENTATION WEEK AT UOW!

Orientation is your introduction to the Wollongong campus and university life in general. It involves a variety of activities and presentations designed to allow you to familiarise yourself with staff and faculties, meet fellow students, finalise your enrolment, ask questions and have some fun!

Faculty Orientations involve activities designed to help you become familiar with the different styles of teaching and learning expected of students at university. Orientations Sessions run by other organisations on campus are designed to introduce you to the social and recreational side of university life. During O Week, you can also get information about resources and faculties, including the university libraries, computer labs and student services such as course and careers advice, counselling, housing, health and finance.

BY THE END OF O WEEK YOU SHOULD KNOW:

✓ Where your Faculty is
✓ Where to go if you need help organising your subjects or picking your classes
✓ How to organise your tutorial enrolment
✓ Where Student Central is and what assistance they can offer
✓ What SOLS is and what you can use it for
✓ What additional support services are available for students
✓ Where the Library is
✓ Where the UniCentre is and what membership means for you
✓ What’s on offer socially at UOW
✓ Who WUSA & WUPA are, what services they provide and what benefits membership may have
✓ Where URAC is and what membership means for you
✓ What ILIP is and how to complete it

We encourage you to attend the Faculty Information Sessions and the full variety of activities scheduled throughout the week.

WHERE CAN I FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION?

FIRST YEAR AT UOW

First year at university is an exciting experience, but it can also be quite a shock for many students, with new and diverse routines, expectations and responsibilities.

DON’T PANIC!! You are not alone in facing these issues and there is a large volume of information and resources available to assist you. This site is designed to help first year students settle in at UOW, to answer common questions and to act as a guide to useful services and information.

For more information visit the First Year at UOW site at http://www.uow.edu.au/student/services/fye/

NB: If you are enrolling in a Bachelor Degree, Graduate Certificate, Graduate Diploma, Masters Degree or Doctoral Degree, and intend to undertake your whole degree at the University of Wollongong, then you are an international student.

FACULTY OF ARTS UNDERGRADUATE PRE- ENROLMENT INFORMATION SESSION

MONDAY 16TH JULY

TIME: 1.30 P.M.
VENUE: 19.1056

If you are starting a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Communication and Media Studies degree, or if you are considering studying a subject offered by the Faculty of Arts, you may like to attend an information session designed to assist you with your subject selection prior to enrolling. Go to Building 19, Room 1056, on Monday 16th July at 1.30 pm where staff from the Faculty of Arts will be available to assist you with your enquiries.
The Sub-Dean will speak to students about the requirements of their courses, and there will be staff on hand to provide advice on the enrolment process, the Arts online tutorial system and the subject timetables. At this session each new student will receive a copy of the Faculty of Arts handbook.

This information session is designed to ensure that students arrive for their enrolment with as much information – and as little tension – as possible.

If you have any enquiries about the Faculty of Arts you can contact the Administration staff at Arts Central in Room 1050 Building 19 every week day between 8.30 am and 5.30 pm. Or you can visit the Faculty website at www.uow.edu.au/arts

FACULTY INFORMATION & TUTORIAL ENROLMENT

Some Faculties have tutorial and practical enrolments via the internet. Details are listed below. If your Faculty is not listed below you will need to contact them directly to find out about your tutorial and practical enrolment procedures.

FACULTY OF HEALTH AND BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCES

The Faculty of Health and Behavioural Sciences has a limited mid-year intake of enrolments in some courses. Academic Advisors will be available on enrolment day to discuss subject choices with enrolling students. Please check the Enrolment Guide booklet for details, or ask staff for assistance on enrolment day.

Students who are already enrolled or planning to enrol in subjects from our Faculty may need to enrol in tutorial and/or practical classes. Information on how to do so varies between Schools as follows:

School of Health Sciences subjects (prefix BEXS, BMS, BND, EDUP, GHMA, GHMD POP) – Please consult the School of Health Sciences in Bld 41, Rm 207 or phone Sandie Bragger on 4221 3463.

School of Nursing, Midwifery and Indigenous Health subjects (prefix NURS, GHMB) – students are required to submit tutorial preference forms and will be allocated to a tutorial group. Please check specific information on the e-Learning space for each subject. If you are having difficulty with this process, please contact Peter Thomas on 4221 3229 or peter_thomas@uow.edu.au.

School of Psychology subjects (prefix PSYC, GHMC) – students enrol themselves in tutorial groups via SOLS. The system will be open for Spring tutorial enrolments on Monday 16th July. All technical difficulties with SOLS should be referred to ITS on 4221 3775. All difficulties with gaining a place in a tutorial class should be directed to the Subject Coordinator. This information can be found at https://sols.uow.edu.au/owa/sid CAL.USER_CALENDAR_SELECT_SCREEN.

Note that some degrees within the Faculty of Health & Behavioural Sciences require subjects that belong to other Faculties. Please refer to the relevant Faculty entry for information on how to complete tutorial or practical classes for these subjects.

For assistance with any student issues, please contact HBS Central on 4221 3492, or visit us on Level 1 of Bld 41.

FACULTY OF LAW

Master of Laws (International & Comparative)

For academic advice, please visit the Faculty of Law Administration Office, Building 67, Room 239.

Seminar Class Enrolment

Students enrolled in subjects offered by the Faculty of Law will be required to nominate seminar preferences on-line via “Student OnLine Services” (SOLS), prior to the commencement of session. Please note that you MUST be enrolled in the subject before you can nominate seminar preferences. For further information please visit the following website: http://www.uow.edu.au/law

FACULTY OF CREATIVE ARTS

The Faculty of Creative Arts will hold a welcome and information session for postgraduate coursework and research students on Tuesday 24 July 2007. Details will be sent separately to new students. For more information please contact Dale Dumpleton on telephone 02 4221 3190.
FACULTY OF SCIENCE

Bachelor of Science (Biological Sciences, Chemistry, Ecology, Geology, Geosciences, Human Geography, Land and Heritage Management, Physical Geography)
Bachelor of Science (Honours) Advanced Program

Double degrees administered by the Faculty of Science:
- Bachelor of Science - Bachelor of Arts
- Bachelor of Science - Bachelor of Commerce
- Bachelor of Science - Bachelor of Mathematics

* Double-degree students should seek advice on subject selection from Academic Advisors in both Faculties, however students in double-degrees owned by other Faculties obtain final approval for their degree programs from the relevant Associate Dean / Sub-Dean / Course Coordinator of the owning Faculty.

For general information and assistance and academic advice, visit the Faculty of Science Office, Building 41, Room 258 or telephone Trina Reddall (02) 4221 3481. A Faculty of Science Students’ Guide is available at the Faculty Office free of charge on request. The Faculty of Science web site is http://www.uow.edu.au/science/

Practical Class Enrolment

All students enrolling in first year Biology, Chemistry and Earth and Environmental Sciences subjects are required to register for practical classes on-line by logging into the Student Enrolment System from SOLS, and selecting “Tutorial Enrolment” in the left-hand menu, prior to the commencement of Spring Session on Monday 23 July, 2007. Please note that this site cannot be accessed until 24 hours after your on-line enrolment has been completed so you cannot complete practical class enrolment on Enrolment Day. Enrolment in practical classes may be done from any computer connected to the Internet or at a University computer. You are required to log on with your user account name and password.

Each subject usually requires two or three 1-hour lectures (at fixed times), one 2 or 3 hour practical class (chosen to fit your timetable from a number of classes offered) and some subjects have one 1-hour tutorial. Attendance at one practical class per week for each Science subject is compulsory.

For assistance with your Practical Class enrolment, contact the appropriate member of staff listed below:

TUTORIALS

BIOL103: This subject does not have a tutorial.
CHEM102: You can attend any tutorial listed in the timetable for this subject.
EESC102 and EESC104: These subjects do not have tutorials.

FACULTY OF ARTS

Many Arts 100-level subjects have online tutorial enrolment. Once new students are enrolled in their subjects they can enrol for tutorials online via the SOLS (Student Online Services) web-page. Go to http://www.uow.edu.au/student and access SOLS.
FACULTY OF ENGINEERING

Please refer to http://www.uow.edu.au/eng/ for further information or enquiries.

FACULTY OF COMMERCE

Tutorial Sign Up - Commerce Tutorial Preference System (TPS) - UOW Campus Only

TPS is an online Tutorial Preference System, TPS is used to allocated students into tutorial, laboratory, workshop and seminar classes for subjects on offer by the Faculty of Commerce.

After enrolment, students select from the class times (as provided) the ones that they would prefer as well as times they wish to avoid. TPS is not a first come/first served system. You will need to be enrolled before you can access the tutorial system. Access dates and further information can be obtained by visiting: www.uow.edu.au/commerce/tuteenrol/index.html

FACULTY OF INFORMATICS

Once you have enrolled in your subjects, you can enrol in tutorials/labs/seminars as follows:

ECTE subjects: you can enrol online one or two days after you have enrolled in the subject. To do this, go to: http://www.elec.uow.edu.au/enrolment.html under the heading “Choose a Tutorial or Laboratory Class”.

CSCI, IACT or ITCS subjects: you can enrol online after your enrolment day by logging into Student Online Services (SOLS) and following the prompts.

MATH or STAT subjects: most tutorials commence in Week 2 of session. For some subjects you can enrol online after your enrolment day by logging into Student Online Services (SOLS). For others, you will receive details of tutorial enrolments in the first week of lectures.

For any other subjects offered by other faculties, go to: http://www.uow.edu.au/student/tps/index.html or contact the relevant faculty for information regarding tutorial/practical/seminar enrolments.
