

STUDY THEME: PRE-LAW STUDIES

STUDY ABROAD AT UOW

Study Abroad students can select a program of study for one or two sessions from any of the academic disciplines at the University of Wollongong. A series of study packages covering various academic themes has been developed to assist with the planning process. Some of the themes include opportunities for students to incorporate an extra dimension to their semester abroad through an associated volunteering, service learning or internship relevant to the topic.

The selection of subjects highlights offerings in the particular study area in either Autumn (February-June) session or Spring (July-November) session. The themes are indicative only and students have the flexibility to substitute subjects from any of the academic faculties.

More information about the subjects, including individual subject descriptions, assessment requirements and pre-requisite information is available in the Undergraduate Handbook at: www.uow.edu.au/handbook

The latest timetable information for Wollongong campus offerings is at www.uow.edu.au/student/timetables

Detailed subject descriptions can be provided upon request. studyabroad@uow.edu.au

Study Abroad students who have completed an introductory law/legal studies subject at their home institution and who plan to enrol in a graduate law degree after completing their Bachelor degree may be interested in enrolling in the following subjects. Other students without any background in legal studies who are interested in including an introductory law subject in their study program at UOW are eligible to enrol in LAW 101 Law, Business & Society (offered Autumn session only).

The Faculty of Law offers a student-centred teaching philosophy, with seminar based teaching in many subjects. The Faculty has established a reputation for innovative research and is home to the following research and specialist centres:

- > Australian National Centre for Ocean Resources and Security (ANCORS)
- > Centre for Transnational Crime Prevention
- > Legal Intersections Research Centre

LEVELS OF STUDY

100 level: a subject at first year level, usually introductory

200 level: a subject at second year level, normally requires some background knowledge.

300 level: a subject at third year level, advanced level undergraduate

Standard load: one year of full-time study is equivalent to 48 credit points, or 24 credit points each academic session

GLOSSARY:

- > Subject a unit of study within a program or degree (called a course in the US system)
- > Assessment work which a student is required to complete to provide a basis for an official record of achievement or certification of competence in a subject.
- > Credit point the value that indicates the study load attached to the subject. One credit point has an implied workload of 2 hours per week- for example, a six credit point subject represents a minimum of 12 hours of work per week: this may be 3 hours of classes, 4 hours of reading and 5 hours of personal study.
- > Faculty a group of Academic Units or Schools.
- > Timetable a weekly schedule of subject meeting times which may include lectures, tutorial, labs and workshops.
- > Tutorial often called a tute, a small discussion group, led by a tutor, designed to provide more detailed coverage of subject content.
- > Uni a common term for a university in Australia
