MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP
HONOURING JACK GOLDRING

Jack Goldring created a dynamic law school at the University of Wollongong. He placed social justice at the heart of student learning. In the last two decades the UOW Faculty of Law has built on his legacy. It has grown into a highly regarded law school, known for the quality of its teaching programs, as well as for excellence in research and scholarship.

To honour its founding Dean, the UOW Faculty of Law has created the Jack Goldring Memorial Fund. The fund will support a new student scholarship. It will uphold the spirit of a man motivated by social justice: an educator and leader in the university sector, a distinguished law reformer, and a highly regarded judge of the District Court of NSW.

HELP US PAY TRIBUTE TO JACK’S CONTRIBUTION TO LAW AND JUSTICE, TO LEGAL EDUCATION AND REFORM.
HELP US HONOUR JACK’S LIFETIME WORK.

CONTINUING THE LEGACY

Contributions to the Jack Goldring Memorial Fund will spearhead a new scholarship for law students. The scholarship (valued at $10,000 pa) will be awarded to a student enrolled in the Bachelor of Law degree program at the University of Wollongong who combines academic excellence with a demonstrated commitment to social justice through legal advocacy and law reform. The scholarship will continue Jack’s work by providing opportunities for students with a passion for making a difference.

SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA: COMMITMENT TO SOCIAL JUSTICE

The Jack Goldring Memorial Scholarship will be awarded annually. The scholarship may be used to cover tuition fees, accommodation or living expenses.

The scholar will meet the following criteria:
- Scholar is enrolled in the LLB course at the University of Wollongong
- Scholar is undertaking their final year of studies
- Scholar has an academic record equal to a credit average
- Scholar can demonstrate a commitment to issues of social justice

It is anticipated the first scholarship will be awarded in 2013.

SCHOLARSHIP MANAGEMENT: SIGNED, SEALED AND DELIVERED

The Jack Goldring Memorial Scholarship will be awarded through a formal application and selection process. The scholar will be selected by a panel, chaired by the Dean of Law, comprising academics from the Faculty of Law and a member of the legal community. The scholarship will be paid in two instalments and will cease should the student defer or cancel their enrolment at the university.

WHY GIVE?

All University of Wollongong law students, past and present, are beneficiaries of Jack Goldring’s compassion and vision. Each gift to the Jack Goldring Memorial Fund has a ripple effect. It helps a deserving student who will in turn give back to our community. It empowers others to continue Jack’s pursuit of social justice.

To ensure the scholarship can be offered in perpetuity, the Faculty of Law aims to raise a corpus of $200,000. Interest earned from the corpus will support the annual scholarship. The Faculty has already received generous gifts from family, friends, alumni and former colleagues.

All gifts are held as an endowment (fund) in perpetuity. Gifts to the Jack Goldring Memorial Fund are fully tax deductible. The University of Wollongong is endorsed by the Australian Tax Office as a deductible gift recipient under subdivision 30-BA of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997. There are no administration fees. 100% of all gifts received go towards the fund.

Donors to the Jack Goldring Memorial Fund will be recognised, where appropriate, at:
- the awarding of the scholarship each year
- the University’s annual donor event
- the annual Jack Goldring Memorial Lecture

We invite all those who recognise and appreciate the contribution Jack Goldring made to the UOW Faculty of Law to come together and contribute to the Jack Goldring Memorial Fund.
