

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND BUSINESS IN ASIA

The International Relations and Business in Asia theme includes a range of subject options relevant to the analysis, appreciation and study of the diversity of the global community.

The International Studies offerings, including language, politics and sociology, help prepare students for future careers in international organisations, as part of the public sector or as part of non-government organisations.

The International Business offerings within the Faculty of Commerce prepare students to respond to the intricacies of international business including the impact of differing cultures and languages, issues posed by differing markets and differing government regulations.

Subject code	Subject name	Prerequisite knowledge
Autumn session (February–July)
FIN 241	International Financial Management	(ACCY102 or ACCY112 & ECON111) or FIN111
INTS100	Introduction to International Studies	None
ISIT306	Strategic eBusiness Solutions	24 cp at 200 level ISIT
LING210	Communication Across Cultures	None
MARK343	International Marketing	MARK101 or MARK213 or MARK293
MGMT301	Managing Across Cultures	MGMT110 + 12cp from 200 and 300 commerce
POL100	The Art of Politics	None
POL225	International Relations: Issues, Concepts and Theories	36 cp including 6 cp Politics
POL317	Politics in the South Pacific	None
Spring Session (July–November)
ECON216	International Trade Theory & Policy	ECON111
ECON251	Industry and Trade in East Asia	None
ECON306	The Chinese Economy	72 cp including ECON101 and ECON111
ISIT326	Social Policy & IT	12 cp at 200 level ISIT
ISIT332	Business Process Management	ISIT204 or IACT304
MGMT341	International & Comparative Human Resource Management	MGMT110 plus 12 cp from commerce 200 & 300 level subjects
POL121	Global Politics and Power	None
SOC326	Globalisation and Social Transformation	16 cp at 200 level

cp = Credit Points