

Have you considered adding an international perspective to your UOW Bachelor degree?

3 ways to add an international perspective

International Exchange Program

This program allow you to study one or two semesters at an overseas exchange partner in North America, Europe, Asia or Latin America. Most institutions offer programs in English but language and cultural studies options are also available. Students can also apply for international exchange scholarships and travel grants. Internship options are also available in some countries

For further details go to: www.uow.edu.au/student/exchange or visit the Study Abroad office, UniAdvice, B36.

2004 Overseas Study Tours

Three week Study Tours are planned for China and Europe. Learn the basics of language and culture, see great monuments, enjoy the cities and countryside, visit local organisations, and earn credit points too.

International Minor Strand

A minor strand is a selection of subjects to the value of 24 – 28 credit points of approved undergraduate study which demonstrates that you have international competencies. Minors are available to ALL students although in some degrees extra study may be required. Completion of this approved study will be noted on your testamur when you graduate.

There are three international minors strands available:

Language Minor

Successful completion of 24-28 credit points of approved language subjects from the Department of Modern Languages. Students select to study either French, Italian, Japanese or Spanish. Any student from any faculty can undertake a language minor if it fits with their degree.

Contact Henri Jeanjean 4221 3643 or www.uow.edu.au/arts/modernlanguages/

International Business Minor

At least 24 credits of approved international business subjects from the Faculty of Commerce. Any student from any faculty can undertake an International Business minor if it fits with their degree. Generally students will use their electives to achieve an IB Minor.
