Overview

The research involved in producing a doctoral (PhD) dissertation involves a significant contribution to a field of knowledge. This degree is the pinnacle of academic achievement, and, normally, a necessary requirement for permanent academic employment at a university or research centre.

Entry Requirements

To enrol in the degree, students need a Bachelor of Arts (or equivalent qualification) with Honours at Class II Division ii or higher, or a Master of Arts - Research with a strong performance in the major thesis.

Course Requirements

The Doctoral Thesis must be a minimum of 80,000 words and no longer than 100,000 words in length. The thesis will be on a topic to be decided by the student in consultation with the appointed supervisors.

Each PhD candidate has two supervisors. Before accepting a PhD candidate, the Faculty will ensure that two supervisors with appropriate expertise are available.

A full-time candidate should normally complete the Doctorate in three years. The Faculty requires the candidate to complete in not less than four (4) consecutive sessions, not including Summer sessions, and not more than eight (8) consecutive sessions, not including Summer sessions, from the date of registration. A part-time candidate shall complete the Doctoral Thesis in not less than six (6) consecutive sessions, not including Summer sessions, and not more than sixteen (16) consecutive sessions, not including Summer sessions, from the date of registration. Candidates may be extended beyond the maximum time period following a satisfactory review of progress.

Fields of Study

Students of the Faculty enrol for the PhD in one of the following discipline or interdisciplinary areas, related to one of the Faculty's major research themes.

Asia-Pacific Studies
Communication and Cultural Studies
English Studies
French
History
International Relations
Italian
Japanese
Linguistics
Philosophy
Politics
Science, Technology and Society
Sociology

Assessment

Students meet regularly with their supervisors to ensure that they are proceeding to plan. Each year, the student and supervisors must submit a progress report. The annual report is the means by which the University assesses whether the candidature will continue into the following year.

When the thesis is submitted, it is examined by two external examiners chosen by the supervisors in consultation with the student.

Master of Arts - Research

Testamur Title:	Master of Arts (Research)
Abbreviation:	MA - Res
Home Faculty:	Faculty of Arts
Duration:	1-1.5 years full-time or part-time equivalent
Total Credit Points:	72 (or 48 with entry from BA (honours) or equivalent)
Delivery Mode:	Supervised research (with entry from BA (Hons.)) With entry from BA (Pass), 24 cp of face-to-face coursework will be required.
Starting Session(s):	Autumn or Spring.
Standard Course Fee:	HECS exempt (local); $7250 AUD per FT session (international)
Location:	Wollongong
UOW Course Code:	1301
CRICOS Code:	042530D

Overview

The Master of Arts – Research can be a research-only degree, where the candidate holds an undergraduate degree with a substantial research component. Where the candidate has an undergraduate Pass degree, the degree will have 24 credit points of coursework in areas aimed at research training. The candidate must complete a substantial thesis (around 50,000 words).

Important Note: This course has replaced the former Master of Arts (Honours) by Research. Students currently enrolled in that course may complete the degree under that course title and course code, but it is closed to new enrolments.

Entry Requirements

There are two entry points for this degree:

1. From the Bachelor of Arts. Students entering the degree from the Bachelor of Arts (Pass) degree will complete a 72 credit point degree, consisting of the 24 credit point subject, ARTS901 Master of Arts Research Methods and, subject to satisfactory completion of the coursework component (see below in Program Structure) a 48 credit point thesis on a disciplinary or interdisciplinary topic.
2. From the Bachelor of Arts (Honours) or the Master of Arts by Coursework (or equivalent qualification). Students having a Bachelor of Arts with Honours Class II, division ii or higher, or a Master of Arts by Coursework (or equivalent) with an average of at least 70% may apply for admission into the Master of Arts - Research degree with Advanced Standing for the 24cp of coursework. They will then complete a 48 credit point thesis in a discipline or interdisciplinary area.

All applications must be approved by the Associate Dean (Research and Graduate Studies). Approval also depends on the availability of supervision within the Faculty for the proposed thesis and its relationship to the key areas of research in the Faculty, and The Centre for Asia Pacific Transformation Studies (CAPSTRANS).

Course Requirements

1. Entry from the Bachelor of Arts (Pass degree) or equivalent: Students will complete one 48 credit point thesis in a field of study and the 24 credit point coursework subject, ARTS901 Master of Arts Research Methods: Students who achieve a Credit average or higher in ARTS901 will proceed to the thesis component of the degree. Students who achieve a Pass average in this subject will be offered the opportunity to transfer to the Master of Arts by Coursework with 24 credit points of Advanced Standing. The thesis topic will be determined by discussion between the student and the Postgraduate Co-ordinator in the School in which the student is enrolled.

The 24 credit point Coursework subject, ARTS901, Master of Arts Research Methods, provides students with training in the theories and research methodologies current in their chosen areas. This training involves three modules of study:

- a specific theory and methods module;
- an advanced content-based module in the student's discipline area;
- a module in which the student writes a detailed research proposal for the Master of Arts thesis.

The precise content of these modules will be determined on a case-by-case basis, with the student and the Academic Program. It will be approved by the Associate Dean (Research and Graduate Studies).

The content-based subject will normally be selected from the range of subjects available in the Master of Arts (coursework) in the student's chosen discipline or interdisciplinary area of study.

2. Entry from the BA (Honours) or equivalent: Students who have completed a Bachelor of Arts Honours degree with Class II division ii or higher, or appropriate research subjects in the Master of Arts (coursework) may apply for Advanced Standing for the 24cp of coursework. They will then enrol in the 48 Credit Point thesis.

Time limits

Full time students should complete the 72 credit point degree in no fewer than two sessions (not including Summer Session) and not more than four sessions (not including Summer Session). Full-time students should complete the 48 credit point course in no fewer than two sessions (not including Summer Session) and not more than four sessions (not including Summer Session). Part-time students normally complete half of the full-time load in the same period and take proportionately longer to complete the degree.

Fields of Study

Refer to entry under PhD

Coursework Subject

Students entering the degree from the BA (Pass) degree undertake the following subject before beginning the thesis:

Subjects	Title	Session	Credit Points
ARTS901	Master of Arts Research Methods	Autumn or Spring	24

Assessment

Coursework: Where students must complete the 24 credit point coursework component, assessment of that part of the degree will depend on the modules chosen, but it will normally be by essays and seminar papers.

Thesis: Students meet regularly with their supervisors to ensure that they are proceeding to plan. Each year, the student and supervisors must submit a progress report. The annual report is the means by which the University assesses whether the candidature will continue into the following year. When the thesis is submitted, it is examined by two examiners chosen by the supervisors in consultation with the student.

Master of Arts (Applied Ethics)

Testamur Title:	Master of Arts (Applied Ethics)
Abbreviation:	MA
Home Faculty:	Faculty of Arts
Duration:	1 year full-time or part-time equivalent
Total Credit Points:	48
Delivery Mode:	Mostly face-to-face
Starting Session(s):	Autumn or Spring.
Standard Course Fee:	$6000 (local); $7250 AUD (international) per FT session
Location:	Wollongong
UOW Course Code:	571
CRICOS Code:	016119J

Overview

The course aims to provide professionals and others who have a general interest in applied ethics with a philosophical education in one or more areas of applied ethics. Applied areas on offer in 2004 (subject to enrolments) are: Bioethics, theoretical Ethics, Applied Ethics Topics and Environmental Ethics.

It has become increasingly obvious with the proliferation of ethics committees and the demand for public accountability that health care professionals, public policy makers, lawyers, public servants, business people, scientists, researchers, and others, are required to make well-reasoned, informed judgements about issues that are essentially ethical. Such judgements require philosophical expertise - one needs to be able to recognise the factual and evaluative complexity of the issues, to recognise evaluative issues as evaluative, critically to evaluate competing ethical claims, and to reason to a conclusion soundly. Yet the development of such expertise is typically not included in the professional training of people who are called to act as ethical decision-makers. The Master of Arts (Applied Ethics) helps make good this lack.

It would be expected that students undertaking the course would benefit at least in the following ways. Firstly, they would sharpen their critical reasoning skills. Secondly, they would gain a good grounding in ethical theory and a comprehensive understanding of the specific issues in their chosen applied area. Third, they would enhance their ability to make difficult, ethically sensitive decisions.

The Master of Arts (Applied Ethics) is a course in applied philosophy, in which ethical theory, as studied in a core subject (PHIL955 - Theoretical Ethics) is applied to various areas of practical concern. The course may be co-taught by members of the Philosophy Program and lecturers from the Faculties of Law and Health and Behavioural Sciences.

Entry Requirements

Admission is open to holders of a Bachelor's degree (pass or honours) in any field or others who satisfy the Board of Research and Postgraduate Studies of comparable professional standing or attainments.

Course Requirements

The Degree is available by Coursework and Minor Thesis. Candidates shall successfully complete a program of 48 credit points, normally comprising a minor thesis (24 credit points) in applied ethics, together with the two 8 credit point core subjects and one 8 credit point elective.

Candidates who have done the undergraduate subject PHIL206, or equivalent, are required to take one core subject PHIL955 and two electives. Candidates who have done the undergraduate subject PHIL251/301, or equivalent, are required to take one core subject PHIL935 and two electives.

All students enrol in PHIL923 Minor Thesis.

CRICOS Code:	016119J

Overview

The Master of Arts (English Studies) provides an opportunity for students to extend and deepen their knowledge of literature studies and skills in textual analysis, possibly as part of professional advancement or to pursue an interest in the subject. The course consists of six subjects in areas of study which reflect the research strengths of the English Studies program. Subject offerings will be varied from year to year. In 2004, subjects range from modern British and European literatures (Modernism and its Others) through American to postcolonial literatures (Turning Points) and twentieth century Australian literature (The Dominant Sound).

Entry Requirements

Entry to the degree is normally from the Bachelor of Arts degree, but students with an equivalent qualification will also be considered.

Course Requirements

Students take six subjects from the schedule of subjects below (48 credit points).

Subjects	Title	Session	Credit Points
Students must select six subjects

Standard Course Fee:	$6000 (local); $7250 AUD (international) per FT session
Location:	Wollongong
UOW Course Code:	571
CRICOS Code:	016119J

Overview

The degree is intended to provide opportunities for graduates of diverse disciplinary backgrounds to develop their academic understanding and professional skills in the field of international relations, broadly defined. The program is expected to be especially useful to students with relevant, professional experience or ambitions, including diplomats, other government officials, business persons, journalists, specialists in public affairs, government relations, etc.

The program is multi-disciplinary in nature, focussing on international politics, economics, management, and law and diplomatic practice, in particular, but allowing both for specialisation within the program as well as for the inclusion of area studies, and other relevant subjects, in accordance with students' needs.

Students take part in simulations and professional seminars, workshops, exchanges with other institutions, including relevant Government agencies, and, where possible, professional placements. Special classes are provided in computing and (where appropriate) English language, study, analytical, public speaking and other skills. A special centre (with computing, video and short-wave radio facilities, plus a range of pertinent periodicals) has been set aside for use by students in the program.

Entry Requirements

Students normally have a Bachelor's degree with a minor sequence in the area studied.

Course Requirements

Students must complete 48 credit points from the following list of subjects (or such greater number as may be required in individual cases). Students are normally required to complete all four core subjects in order to graduate in the program.

Please note that not all these subjects are available in any one year, and that students need to plan their course of study according to the availability of subjects.
