Overview

The Doctor of Philosophy is for those individuals with a track record of high-level professional experience who wish to extend their practice within a scholarly context.

The Doctor of Philosophy is based on submission of a thesis in a scholarly field or a combination of scholarly thesis and creative work presentation. The course is intended for scholars or artist-scholars who have a solid academic and/or artistic background and who wish to develop either or both fields to a doctoral level. Such candidates may not yet have had substantial artistic experience, but should demonstrate high levels of promise and an appropriate standard of preparation.

It may be possible for individuals with appropriate expertise to undertake studies that involve more than one discipline area. Interested applicants should contact the Faculty's Professional Officer.

Entry Requirements / Assumed Knowledge

Applicants should have an Honours Bachelor degree of at least four years duration in an appropriate discipline at Class II, Division 1 or higher, or equivalent qualifications. Applicants wishing to submit a combination of thesis and creative work should demonstrate that both their academic and artistic backgrounds equate with the above minimum standard. In certain circumstances students may be required to commence their enrolment in the Master of Arts – Research and seek transfer to the Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) when they achieve a suitable standard.

It is important that applicants submit adequate material to demonstrate the quality and standing of their work.

Course Requirements

Students enrol in THES924 Thesis (full-time) or THES912 Thesis (part-time).

Submission will be in the form of:

- scholarly thesis (100%); or
- scholarly thesis (50%) combined with creative work (50%).

The thesis will be in the range of 60,000 to 90,000 words, with an equivalent workload where submission is by thesis and creative work. The exact nature of each submission will vary according to the student's educational and professional background and will be negotiated in consultation with the supervisor(s) and the Head of Postgraduate Studies. Examples of creative work submission include a folio of compositions or writing, exhibitions of artwork and musical or dramatic performances. As a guide, the scale of the submission of creative work would normally not constitute significantly less than for the Doctor of Creative Arts. Assessment is by two external assessors.

Overview

The Doctor of Creative Arts is for those individuals with a track record of high level professional experience who wish to extend their practice within a scholarly context.

The Doctor of Creative Arts is based on presentation of creative work and supported by written documentation of the context and theories underpinning the work. Assessment is by two external examiners.

It may be possible for individuals with appropriate expertise to undertake studies which involve more than one discipline area. Interested applicants should contact the Faculty's Professional Officer.

Entry Requirements / Assumed Knowledge

Applicants must possess an Honours Bachelor degree of at least four years duration in an appropriate discipline at Class II, Division 1 or higher (or its equivalent) and be able to demonstrate evidence of high artistic attainment. Examples of high artistic attainment include publication or professional dissemination of work; grants, fellowships and prizes; critical acclaim; a track record of sustained high level professional activity; and various indicators relevant to the specific discipline.

As a guide, students completing the MCA will need to achieve at or near a high distinction average in the two coursework subjects and a satisfactory pass in the major presentation to be considered for entry to the DCA. Likewise, students who have completed coursework Masters programs at other universities should be aware that such qualifications might not be regarded as adequate preparation for immediate entry to the DCA program.

In certain circumstances, students may be required to commence their enrolment in the Master of Arts – Research or Master of Creative Arts – Research, and seek transfer to the DCA, when and if they achieve the required standard.

Outstanding arts practitioners without the required formal qualifications may be allowed to enrol in the DCA provided they can demonstrate a sustained period of artistic activity at the highest level.

It is important that applicants submit adequate material to demonstrate the quality and standing of their work.

Course Requirements

The submission of the DCA will normally be by exhibition, performance or publication of creative work in the area of major, supported by written documentation (approximately 20,000 to 30,000 words) focusing on aspects such as origins of the work, structures and techniques used, and artistic theories underpinning the work. It may be appropriate to support written material with documentation in other forms, for example, photographs or sound and video recordings. In all cases, the dissertation is intended to be an integrated part of the full submission and, wherever possible, to argue the case for the merit and originality of the creative work. The Faculty is keen that the dissertation should be a vital and engaging document. It therefore permits some flexibility in the style of its submission. Nonetheless, the dissertation should be presented in a well-researched form that demonstrates an understanding of scholarly method.

In all cases, the submission should demonstrate originality and high levels of artistry and specialist skill. The work should be of a publishable standard, should show an engagement with artistic and intellectual ideas and have a strong artistic and academic focus. Wherever possible, exhibitions and performances will be held at the University of Wollongong or associated venues. Under some circumstances external or professional engagements by DCA candidates may form a part of the submission. The exact nature of each student's program will be finalised in consultation with the supervisor(s) and the Head of Postgraduate Studies.

Students presenting their work by exhibition or performance are required to present their dissertation for examination no later than three months after the final performance or exhibition. Students presenting their work by folio or similar means should present their dissertation and folio in one submission. Assessment is by two external assessors who normally assess all parts of the submission.

The following is intended as a guide to the scale and style of creative work submission:

Creative Writing: Substantial folio of creative writing which may take the form of a large-scale project such as a novel (75,000 words), poetry collection (80 pages) or play script (90 minutes duration), or a combination of smaller pieces.

Graphic Design and New Media: Graphic design portfolio/exhibition and/or website/CD-Rom.

Music Composition: Folio of up to 10 compositions and several works that employ large resources or performance media.

Performance – Music: Three or four recitals demonstrating high levels of artistry and focus; normally such recitals include full-length solo and chamber music performances, a concerto or equivalent and a lecture recital.

Performance – Theatre: Direction or facilitation of a production of not less than 90 minutes duration; significant dramaturgical analysis and portfolio of a full-length theatrical performance; performance in a leading role demonstrating high levels of technical assurance and artistry; or technical facilitation, design and execution of a full length theatre performance.

Visual Arts: Major solo exhibition of artwork plus documented preliminary exhibitions.

Students enrol in THES924 Thesis (full-time) or THES912 Thesis (part-time).

THEA913 Major Presentation – Theatre:

The major presentation is the planning and implementation of a practical demonstration of the student's work. In addition to the realisation of the project, students will give a public presentation accompanied by a 2000 word analysis of the process undertaken with appropriate annotation and commentary. The parameters of the presentation must be negotiated with the supervisor(s).

VISA913 Major Presentation – Visual Arts:

Overview

The Master of Journalism is a practical coursework program, designed to provide critical educational and vocational training in journalism. It assists students in adapting to structural and technological change and promotes critical evaluation of professional journalism processes through its teaching and research.

The educational foundation for the course is built on practical skills – orientated towards the philosophical, ethical, and critical aspects of the news media in the context of comparative journalistic realities.

The Graduate Program in Journalism, formerly offered through the Graduate School of Journalism since its inception, is now offered through the School of Journalism and Creative Writing.

Entry Requirements / Assumed Knowledge

A Bachelor degree (any discipline) or equivalent from a recognised institution with a credit average or higher. Qualified journalists are eligible for consideration on the basis of documented evidence of at least two years full-time experience. Applicants with an undergraduate degree must provide certified academic transcripts and curriculum vitae (CV) outlining work history and/or academic study. Applicants with experience in journalism or a media related industry must provide details of employment history (CV) and include letter(s) from employer(s) to verify details of employment.

Applicants must provide an 800 - word opinion article (refer to application form), or if application is on basis of industry experience, samples of work published in the print or electronic media are required.

All applicants must be able to provide documented proof of English language proficiency. The University of Wollongong's English Language Requirements are outlined at: <http://www.uow.edu.au/discover/international/ENGLISH/englishset.html>.

Advanced Standing

Advanced standing may be granted for a particular subject(s) on the basis of previous education, training or professional experience. A letter requesting advanced standing must be accompanied by verified copies of documents or other evidence to substantiate the request. Evidence may include academic transcripts, samples of published work, letters from employers verifying experience and length of service.

Course Requirements

The program of study for the Master of Journalism must total 48 credit points. The four core subjects JOUR901, JOUR902, JOUR903 and JOUR933 must be completed successfully before commencing the requisite 24 credit points of elective subjects unless the Program Co-ordinator determines otherwise. Exemption from core subjects may be granted by the Co-ordinator on the basis of documented professional experience.

With the approval of the Co-ordinator, students may take a maximum of three subjects from other postgraduate and undergraduate courses where it can be shown that this will assist in the development of specialist skills in journalism. Students may also complete a major project approved by the Co-ordinator, or an internship in a professional media organisation, or such field work as the Program Co-ordinator may prescribe.

Students using on-line WebCT will need to have access to a computer with a cross-platform capability and have a web browser and Acrobat Reader installed.

All students will be required to use email. Off-campus students will receive either printed hard copy or digital CD Rom based materials for subjects (on offer), and for some subjects, video materials will also be provided.
