- session in which the subject is offered (eg Autumn).

How and where do I connect to the web re-enrolment system?
To log onto the re-enrolment system:
- enter the requested details in the SOLS logon box (ie your username and password);

You can access the re-enrolment system from any computer that has Internet access, though we recommend that you use a browser such as Mozilla, Netscape 7 or Internet Explorer 4 or above (go to http://staff.uow.edu.au/web/using/index.html for more information regarding system requirements for using the University website). The student computer labs, situated on level 1 of Building 17, would be an ideal place to do your re-enrolment.

To ensure that you have made suitable choices of subjects for 2012, check the course and subject information in the Course Handbook (http://www.uow.edu.au/handbook/). The Handbook contains details of the courses on offer in 2012 and descriptions of available subjects. The subject timetable is also on the web and can be found at http://www.uow.edu.au/student/timetables/index.html.

When can I access the web re-enrolment system?
You can connect to the University's re-enrolment system between 21 November 2011 and 31 January 2012. You can still re-enrol after 31 January but you will incur a $100 late enrolment fee if you have not added any subjects via SOLS by this date.

Can I change my subjects once I have enrolled?
Yes. Once you have enrolled you will be able to vary your enrolment as often as you like (within normal university rules) using the same procedure. You should ensure that you are aware of the key dates for addition and withdrawal for your subjects.

Why has my enrolment been changed?
The University may cancel your enrolment if you owe the University money; or if you are a research student and have not returned your progress report; or, if following your Spring session results, you fail to meet the course progress requirements and are subsequently excluded. The University may also alter your enrolment if you do not satisfy pre-requisite requirements for any of your subjects. You will be notified by SOLS Mail if your enrolment is altered for any of these reasons.
How and when do I pay my Student Contribution Amount (domestic Commonwealth supported students only)?

For those domestic students who elect to make a partial or full upfront payment of their Student Contribution Amount, the amount payable will appear on your Fee Statement which can be accessed through SOLS. The amount quoted will include the discount for students who pay upfront. The deadline to pay your Student Contribution Amount is 31 March for Autumn session subjects.

Students who apply for HECS-HELP and do not elect to make an upfront payment will not have any student contribution amounts quoted on their fee statement. This information will be available from your SOLS Commonwealth Assistance Notice (CAN) which is provided 28 days after each census date.

How and when do I pay my tuition fees?

All international students and domestic fee paying students will be sent a payment advice in late February, along with information about the options you have to pay your fees.

Will I receive another payment advice if I change my enrolment?

An amended payment advice WILL NOT automatically be mailed to you if you change your enrolment. If your enrolment is changed, your updated fees can be viewed the next working day by logging onto SOLS and selecting ‘Fee Statement’. The updated amount can be paid using your original payment advice. Simply change the amount owing to match the new amount on SOLS. Alternatively, a new payment advice can be obtained from Student Central or by telephoning 1300 ASK UOW.
