CREATING BETTER FUTURES

Studying Commerce at UOW is a positive investment in your future—our postgraduate degrees are internationally recognised professional qualifications that provide a sound foundation for a wide range of career options.

Our programs put you in touch with the major issues and developments affecting organisations and society. We prepare you to work, research and manage in a wide variety of business contexts including government and non-profit organisations.

As a graduate of the UOW you will leave with more than a postgraduate degree and great employment prospects. You will walk away as a well-rounded individual, someone who is informed, connected and a clear communicator. We educate our students to become socially responsible individuals. To become innovative and flexible business people. We believe these qualities will empower tomorrow’s leaders, innovators and entrepreneurs.

Our Faculty purpose, to inspire socially innovative commerce, links business innovation—across private, non-profit and government and sectors—to the collective wealth and well-being of our planet. It is underpinned by an understanding of genuine corporate social responsibility, environmental sustainability, personal and business ethics, and human rights.

The Faculty of Commerce has a strong reputation within Australia and overseas for the quality of its teaching and research. Our reputation is reflected in the business community’s demand for our graduates.

The Commerce International Unit provides ongoing support for international students, with dedicated staff to assist all enquiries from small questions to major issues.

COMMERCE KEY RESEARCH AREAS

The Faculty of Commerce has three key research areas:

SOCIAL INNOVATION NETWORK (SINET)
www.uow.edu.au/research/networks/sinet
SINet stands for the development of new concepts, strategies and tools that empower individuals, communities, profit and non-profit organisations and the government to improve quality of life.

SINet provides a focus for interdisciplinary research across the social sciences within the University of Wollongong and offers a unique opportunity for individuals to form relationships with researchers with similar interests in disciplinary areas other than their own. The synergies gained through such interaction can be of immense benefit in the pursuit of social innovation.

The SINet research groups within the Faculty of Commerce are:

- Centre for Applied Systems Research (CASR) www.uow.edu.au/commerce/smm/mgmt/casr
- Centre for Small Business & Regional Research (CSBRR) www.uow.edu.au/commerce/econ/csbrr
- Centre for Human and Social Capital Research (CHSCR) www.uow.edu.au/commerce/econ/chscr
- Centre for Social, Non-Profit and Services Marketing Research www.uow.edu.au/commerce/mark/csmr
- Centre for Health, Environment, Development and Growth Economics (HEDGE)
MARY ROSE ALIM, MASTER OF FORENSIC ACCOUNTING
I am currently employed with the Anti-Money Laundering Council Secretariat, the Financial Intelligence Unit of the Republic of the Philippines. As an Accounting Specialist, my current role involves the evaluation, analysis and preparation of investigative reports on suspicious transactions related to an unlawful activity or money laundering offence. I also assist foreign states in their own anti-money laundering operations.

Aside from the competent teaching core, UOW offers more than just an environment conducive to learning but also a place to enhance your knowledge with comprehensive programs that develop the skills necessary to achieve even better, greater results. The Forensic Accounting program not only developed my investigative knowledge and capabilities, but also gave me new insights into the attitudes, methods and uncertainties of real world forensic accounting. It taught me it is not always what you know that matters but more importantly how you use this knowledge to your advantage and thus, achieve better results.

I graduated my Master of Forensic Accounting with Distinction. Yet the sense of fulfilment is more than just the academic awards—it is in being able to combat the consequences of criminal activity and make a difference to lives of my fellow Filipinos.

MASTER OF COMMERCE
CRICOS 060472D

Duration 1 year (48 cp)
Starting sessions Autumn/Spring
Majors E-Commerce; Finance; Organisational Innovation; Public Relations; Regional Development.
Entry requirements Recognised Bachelor degree.

This course is ideal for those who want to change their careers. Employers today are looking for graduates who have a broad business perspective. This course provides the fundamental skills that will allow non-Commerce graduates to obtain a stand-alone qualification in preparation for a career in either small- or large-scale business contexts.

COURSE STRUCTURE
The course comprises four core subjects, covering marketing management, foundations of management, economics and accounting foundations for professionals, plus a further four subjects selected from any postgraduate Commerce subject. Students are able to concentrate their study in finance, e-commerce, public relations, regional development, organisational innovation or other disciplines offered; or may choose from the broad range of subjects across the Faculty.

ARTICULATION
Students successfully completing the Master of Commerce may proceed to more specialist Commerce Masters degrees as shown on pages 29. Students admitted to the Master of Commerce on the basis of a recognised Bachelor degree in business, accountancy or finance, and who complete the first session with an average mark of 60%, have the option to fast-track entry into a more specialist degree.

Students who hold a recognised degree in business or commerce may be permitted to substitute the core subjects with other subjects approved by the course coordinator.
ACCOUNTING (MCom–MPA)

be offered the MCom–MPA program.

ACCOUNTING (MPA)

If your qualification is not considered equivalent under these guidelines, you may apply for direct entry to the MPA.

GUIDELINES

Entry requirements

A recognised Bachelor degree in any area OR a combination of three years’ academic/professional qualifications AND three years of full-time work experience in a business context.

COURSE STRUCTURE

The Graduate Certificate in Commerce comprises four core subjects, covering marketing management, foundations of management, economics and accounting foundations for professionals.

ARTICULATION

On completion of the Graduate Certificate in Commerce with an overall average of 60%, students may apply to transfer into either the Master of Commerce or the Master of Professional Accounting. Successful applicants will be required to complete a further 24 credit points of coursework from the Master of Commerce schedule or 72 credit points of coursework from the Master of Professional Accounting schedule.

Students who hold a degree in business or commerce from a recognised tertiary institution and who achieve an overall average of 60% in the Graduate Certificate in Commerce may be eligible to transfer into a specialised Commerce Masters program other than the Master of Commerce. The number of subjects to be completed in that specialised Masters program will be determined by the relevant course coordinator.

Students who do not achieve an overall average of 60% in the Graduate Certificate in Commerce may apply for admission to the Master of Commerce and complete it with a further 48cp.

ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE

Masters of Professional Accounting (MPA)

The MPA is designed for non-accounting graduates to gain the qualifications required to practise as an accountant.

The MCom–MPA Double Masters program combines an MPA with a Master of Commerce. This combination was developed as a response to industry demand for graduates with these skills. This Master of Commerce degree not only provides students with fundamental commerce skills but also addresses the cultural and communication issues that will help international students implement accounting knowledge.

Students will be equipped with the skills and knowledge to understand and operate effectively in the Australian workforce. In particular, students will gain skills in intercultural communication with emphasis on teamwork and Australian workplace culture. It provides the opportunity for students to access the Australian workforce either for work experience or employment.

ALAULDIN NAJDI
SAUDI ARABIA
MASTER OF STRATEGIC MARKETING

Wollongong is a small and quite beautiful city. Students and tourists are attracted to it, whether for the gorgeous beaches, golf course and Mount Keira, or for the academic reputation of UOW.

Actually, I came to UOW to study the Master of Strategic Marketing because my cousin graduated from here and he recommended it. I was worried about struggling with my study, but after the first session I overcame any learning difficulties. The excellent library was especially good for helping me enhance my academic strategies and techniques.

Also, it’s easy to adopt the local culture—because Wollongong is a small city, it’s not difficult to be involved socially. I believe that my study at UOW and what I have learned will positively affect my profession as marketer in the future.
The modern human resources manager needs to seize new opportunities and adapt quickly to changing conditions. This course provides the skills necessary to examine structures, systems, culture and leadership; to implement organisational change; and to leverage competitive advantage in the global marketplace through contemporary HRM practice.
