JAMES Dunn, in his column in the Advocate, August 7, expressed the opinion that Australia should move more to the war against the Taliban. He argued that the Australian Government is not doing enough to combat the Taliban. He said that Australia should send more troops to the war zone to help stop the Taliban from taking over more areas.

drought has always been one of the major challenges of living in Australia. It is our changing weather patterns and the threat of more extreme weather events such as bushfires and floods. Drought has a big impact on our lives, especially in rural areas.
