

Goodwill Hunting

UNIVERSITY
OF WOLLONGONG
AUSTRALIA

PRELOVED. RECYCLED. FREE.

Here's a win-win opportunity – help our students set up home and declutter your own place at the same time!

It's time to go Goodwill Hunting by offering our domestic and international students a chance to pick up free household items. UOW staff and community members have made this transition for students easier since Goodwill Hunting had its humble beginnings in 2011. It has been particularly gratifying seeing the wider community joining in this event. At the last Goodwill Hunting event, almost 1,000 students flocked to the UOW Hall and foyer to select for free from a collection of crockery, cutlery, saucepans, bed linen, towels and other household items. From feedback received over the years, there is little doubt that the event generates an enormous amount of goodwill between the students, university and the wider community.

Are you able to help out by donating your unwanted household items to the next Goodwill Hunting?

Now is the time to have the Spring clean out you keep contemplating.

Students trying to set up their households would make invaluable use of those extra pots and pans, sheets, towels, blankets and doonas which have been sitting scarcely used in your cupboards. Why not set to now decluttering those kitchen and bathroom cupboards – and assist in a worthy cause at the same time.

Your friendly GOODWILL HUNTING team is happy to accept any household item that can help a student set up home for the first time.

If donating bed linen, we would really appreciate you indicating whether it is for a single, double, queen or king bed, and ensuring that it is in a clean, usable condition.

Please no furniture items as we do not have the space to store these. If you have furniture that you would like to donate, please take an image of your furniture item and email it to blooker@uow.edu.au, including your name, mobile phone number, suburb and a description of the item, including dimensions, and we will place it on our 'furniture board' for students to contact you direct to arrange pick-up.

'GOODWILL' VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

To assist with this important event on the university calendar, volunteers are needed to assist with the sorting, cleaning and packing of items ready for transport to the UOW Hall. You may even find yourself elevated to the highly coveted positions of CEO of Cutlery; CEO of Linen; CEO of Pots and Pans; or even CEO of Bric-a-Brac!

Any amount of time that you can help us with would be greatly appreciated. Please call Kay on mobile 0423 265 485.

The season of goodwill is approaching in more ways than one so make it a jolly time for needy students by clearing out those cupboards.
