Faculty of Education

Bachelor of Teaching (Primary)

2nd Year Professional Experience Handbook

2008
This Handbook outlines the guidelines for the professional experience embedded in the Faculty of Education 2nd year undergraduate course.

The subjects undertaken within the University context provide knowledge and skills about teaching and learning in Primary Education. However it is within the school context that preservice teachers can begin to make the vital connections between the theory and practice.

All preservice teachers have been made aware of the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act, 1998 and Commission for Children and Young People Act, 1998 and have completed the Prohibited Employment Declaration at the beginning of their University degree before undertaking practical work. Students cannot commence professional experience without signing the declaration. Faculty of Education academic staff liaison have also completed Prohibited Employment Declarations.

The Faculty of Education acknowledges the important role that practising teachers play in the overall education of preservice teachers. The Faculty would like to thank Principals, in-school coordinators and supervising teachers for supporting the Professional Experience program in 2008.

2 FACULTY OF EDUCATION POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

2.1 Professional Conduct

The University of Wollongong Code of Practice- Practical Placement outlines the responsibility of students when they are involved in any professional experience in a setting outside of the University that is a requirement of a course or subject offered by the University. The Code of Practice can be found at:

Preservice teachers in the Faculty of Education are expected to act in accordance with University of Wollongong Code of Practice- Practical Placement. The Faculty expects that at all times:

• Students must behave ethically and in a manner that upholds the good name of the Faculty of Education and the University of Wollongong.
• Students must adhere to the professional ethics and codes of conduct appropriate to the teaching profession.
• Students must dress professionally and in a manner appropriate to the setting in which the professional experience is undertaken.
• Students maintain confidentiality with regard to privileged information that they will have access to in all professional experience placements.

Grounds for exclusion from school placement
As a result of extenuating circumstances or professional misconduct a student may be asked by the Principal or the University of Wollongong to leave the school, terminating the professional experience. Reasons for the removal of a preservice teacher from a school placement and subsequent failure of the professional experience may be due to but not limited to the following situations:

• A serious breach of the University Code of Conduct, policies or procedures
• A serious breach of New South Wales Department of Education, Catholic Education Commission NSW or individual school regulations
• A preservice teachers behaviour places school pupils and/or staff at risk
• Unexplained absences or absences without satisfactory explanation
• A preservice teacher accesses confidential school documents without permission
• A preservice teacher discredits the school, the students or teachers

If a preservice teacher is excluded from a professional experience the Principal must contact the Faculty of Education immediately. The preservice teacher must meet with their Program Director to discuss their actions and subsequent consequences. Exclusion from professional experience may result in either failure of the subject in which the professional experience is imbedded or exclusion from study in the Faculty of Education.
2.2 School Placement

Locations

- Places that are available for pre service teachers at the University of Wollongong are determined at the start of each year and based on school offers for each pre service program. The Faculty of Education region for professional experience covers schools that are in the Sutherland, Wollongong, Shellharbour, Southern Highlands, Campbelltown and Shoalhaven regions.

- The Faculty of Education Professional Experience Officer is responsible for seeking school places - students must NOT approach a school or a teacher to request a placement unless they have applied and gained approval to complete an out of area professional experience.

- Students may place an application to the Director of Professional Experiences to complete an out of area professional experience. An out of area professional experience is in a school that is outside the Faculty of Education region (as outlined above). Unless there are extenuating circumstances students may only complete one out of area professional experience during their pre service teacher training.

- Domestic students may apply to complete their final professional experience with the DET Beyond the Line or Beyond the Bridge Programs. Places in these programs are very competitive and open to primary and secondary pre service teachers in all undergraduate and Graduate Diploma in Education students.

- Overseas opportunities – Malaysia, Fiji, China and Thailand (summer session). These experiences, when offered, have limited places and the cost to attend must be covered by each student. Overseas teaching experiences are not available to students in their first year of study. A student wishing to nominate for an overseas experience should consult the Deputy Director of his or her particular course, as well as the coordinator of the overseas experience to determine whether or not the teaching experience is appropriate in terms of the student's program of study. Students enrolled in the one-year Graduate Diploma in Education may nominate an overseas experience in the minor (second) professional experience.

  - Students will be able to nominate for only one overseas location.
  - Approval to complete an overseas professional experience is subject to the review of student professional experience report/s and academic progress by the Sub Dean and the relevant program Director.
  - Please Note: overseas experiences may be cancelled at short notice due to health factors or other unforeseen circumstances. It is the student's responsibility to have the appropriate travel insurance. If this occurs the Faculty will place students in schools within the Faculty of Education region.
  - Please Note: The coordinators of each overseas experience have the sole discretion to send students home who breach the University of Wollongong Code of Conduct- Professional Experience Placements.
Allocation to schools

• Students will be automatically allocated to their first professional experience through the Professional Experience Administration System. As the allocation is based on each student's postcode listed in SOLS, it is vital that students ensure that their personal details are correct. For all other professional experiences students will have the opportunity to place preferences in the Professional Experience Administrator prior to school allocation.

• While every effort is made to place students in close proximity to their ‘session’ address this cannot be guaranteed as placement is dependent on offers from schools and the number of students in each program.

• Each professional experience must be completed during the scheduled dates designated by the Faculty of Education. Where extenuating circumstances prevent a student from completing their professional experience when scheduled an application for a variation to professional experience may be submitted.

• To broaden pre service teachers understanding of school environments and to provide a range of school experiences students are not permitted to undertake all their professional experience experiences solely in a denominational or private school system nor return to a previous professional experience school. (Except in the Graduate Diploma of Education where the initial and minor professional experience are linked).

• Because of ethical and professional reasons students will not be able to undertake their professional teaching experiences at a school where they work, or have relatives (partner, child, parent or other close relative) employed or enrolled at a school. It is the responsibility of a student to notify the Faculty immediately if they have been placed in a school that breaches this policy.

• Students who have a medical condition, illness, injury or disability that may impact upon on their placement should speak to the Director of Professional Experiences or the Director of the Degree in which they are enrolled. Please ensure that this contact is made as early as possible in the semester. Registration with Disability Services may likely be required in order that suitable reasonable adjustments can be made.

2.3 Roles and Responsibilities

2.3.1 School Principal

Developing and maintaining close relationships between schools and the Faculty of Education is vital to the success of the Professional Experience Program. The Principal is responsible for appointing an in-school coordinator to liaise with the Faculty on all Professional Experience matters. When appointed to a school and for the duration of their professional experience, preservice teachers are under the administrative control of the school Principal. If any issues arise regarding the professional ethics and conduct of a preservice teacher during a professional experience the Principal should contact the Faculty of Education.
2.3.2 In-School Coordinator

The role of In-School Coordinator is integral to the success of professional experience as they are the contact between the school and the University before, during and after each professional experience experience. Their responsibilities include:

- liaison with the Professional Experience Officer and communicating any changes to placement offered by their school
- allocating preservice teachers to appropriate supervising teachers and professional learning environments
- arranging orientation and induction of student(s) to the school
- be available to meet the student(s) on their first day and ensure they are aware of relevant school policies and procedures
- ensure preservice teachers are receiving appropriate support and mentoring from their supervising teacher
- observe a preservice teacher if the supervising teacher has concerns regarding their progress and level of competence
- inform the University liaison lecturer or the Professional Experience Officer immediately when the school has concerns with preservice teacher competence and/or professional conduct
- collect and send the professional experience reports, attendance book and pay claims to the University as soon as possible after the conclusion of a professional experience.

2.3.3 Supervising Teacher

The role of the supervising teacher is critical in determining the quality and nature of a preservice teacher’s professional experience. They have a significant role in facilitating preservice teacher learning and development while in the school setting and enhancing their professional understandings and competence. Responsibilities of supervising teachers include:

- discussing and negotiating teaching allocation with the preservice teacher
- willingness to be observed in the process of teaching/learning by your preservice teacher
- providing guidance and support on lesson planning, preparation and implementation
- insisting on lessons plans being presented and discussed prior to implementation
- ensuring that the preservice teacher meets the obligations outlined in this handbook
- provide regular written and oral feedback to students (minimum of three written feedback sheets per week)
- return all other necessary documents to the in-school coordinator as soon as possible
- inform the in-school coordinator and/or liaison lecturer immediately when a preservice teacher is making unsatisfactory progress or if concerned with their professional conduct.
Teaching / Learning Experience Feedback
Supervising teachers are asked to provide oral and written feedback to students throughout the professional experience. Sample forms are provided, however a supervising teacher may prefer to develop their own format for providing written feedback. It is suggested that at least three written feedback forms are completed and discussed each week during the professional experience experience. The feedback forms should be given to the preservice teacher to incorporate into their teaching portfolio and to use for self-reflection and future development.

2.3.4 Liaison Lecturer

During all professional experience experiences a lecturer from the Faculty of Education is allocated to each school to liaise with the in-school coordinator and supervising teachers. Liaison is either by phone, visit and/or email with the lecturer the key contact between the Faculty and the school. Responsibilities of liaison lecturer include:

• enhancing the relationship between the Faculty of Education and schools
• contacting their schools and introducing themselves to the Principal/in-school coordinator and explain the nature of the liaison for the particular professional experience
• arranging with in-school coordinator an initial meeting with preservice teachers and supervising teachers
• supporting and advising preservice teachers throughout the professional experience
• providing further support for supervising teachers and preservice teachers through lesson observation and mentoring when a preservice teacher is making unsatisfactory progress
• informing the professional experience program coordinator immediately if a school has concerns with a preservice teachers progress or professional conduct.

2.3.5 Student Teacher

Orientation to schools
During the first week in a school ( or rolling days if scheduled), preservice teachers must become familiar with the culture of the school. They will be expected to become familiar with:

• school policies and routines
• teaching resources, equipment, rooms, timetables and facilities
• subject curricula and programs in use in the school
• library facilities and resources
• legal, professional and personal responsibilities of the teacher
• special projects, curricular developments and the extra-curricular school programs

Preservice teachers must observe teaching practices in a variety of contexts and give assistance to teachers in:
• providing learning assistance in the classroom
• organisation and preparation of teaching aids
  • assessment and evaluation
  • playground duties and supervision of pupils

They are expected to undertake observation and planning activities in relation to the class/classes which will be taught in the practice teaching period.

Attendance and Absences
• Preservice teachers must attend all allocated professional experience days and be present for the whole school day - failure to do so will result in a fail grade being awarded for the professional experience.
• In-school coordinators will inform preservice teachers of the time of arrival and departure as this varies from school to school. Punctuality is a professional responsibility. Arrival and departure times specified by the school must adhered to, however the Faculty of Education expects students to be present at least 30 minutes prior to the start of the school day and be available for meetings after school. Preservice teachers must sign the attendance book each day on arrival in the school.
• If an absence must occur due to illness or other extenuating circumstances preservice teachers must contact the Principal, in-school coordinator or supervising teacher through established channels as early as possible. The preservice teacher must complete a leave form and submit it to the In-School Professional experience coordinator when they return to school.
• The leave form must be with a medical certificate for absences of two or more days.
• Preservice teachers must negotiate with their supervising teacher to make up all absences.

Lesson Plans and Reflections
Lesson plans must be prepared for every lesson taught. These plans must be presented in written form, to the supervising teacher before the lesson is taught. Comments and suggestions can be made, discussed and implemented prior to implementation. Students are expected to keep copies of all lesson plans and reflections (this may be in day book form) for later reflection and preparation for subsequent professional experiences.

The Law
Preservice teachers should be made aware of the safety conditions and procedures of the school. The law as it relates to negligence applies to preservice teachers in the same manner as it does to the community generally and they can be held liable for any negligent act on his/her part that results in an injury to a school student. If the preservice teacher is present merely as an observer or working under supervision of the class teacher or teachers, it cannot be argued convincingly that s/he carried responsibility. A preservice teacher should never be left alone in charge of either a classroom or a section of the playground.

Use of School Resources
Preservice teachers are expected to take great care with the use of equipment and materials that are the property of the school. They should obtain permission from the appropriate school authority (usually the supervising teacher) before committing themselves to teaching procedures that require the use of expendable materials and before using school equipment. This applies particularly to the use of photocopier which represents a considerable cost item for schools. As a general rule, student teachers should not request the use of photocopying facilities for their own use, for example, copying teachers' programs, syllabus documents, teaching resources, etc. unless negotiated with the school.

Additional Duties

It is an expectation of the University that all preservice teachers participate fully in the life of the school during their practice teaching experience. This includes participating in extra-curricula school activities, staff meetings, professional development activities and other duties, as required by the Principal and supervising teachers.

In addition to professional responsibilities associated with classroom teaching, preservice teachers are expected to fulfill duties such as playground and bus duty, school sport, assemblies and other extra curricular activities. Student Teachers must not be given sole responsibility when in these roles. If a school requests a preservice teacher to attend a school excursion during professional experience that is more than one day the preservice teacher should seek approval from their relevant program director.

Preservice Teacher Progress

Where a preservice teacher is making unsatisfactory academic progress or is failing a subject in which a professional experience is embedded, the subject coordinator, in consultation with the program director and director of professional experience, will determine whether the student will be permitted to commence their professional experience.

The supervising teacher, in consultation with the Faculty of Education liaison lecturer, assesses preservice teacher progress during the professional experience. A preservice teacher may be deemed unsatisfactory if the supervising teacher, in consultation with the University determines that the student has not achieved the intended outcomes for the professional experience. Where professional experience is embedded in a subject a fail grade will be awarded for that subject.

2.4 Preservice Teacher Assessment and Reporting Procedures

Preservice teachers enrolled in all programs offered in the Faculty of Education will participate in a range of Professional Experiences that will provide students with the opportunity to relate theory to practice. These Professional Experiences are associated with both core and elective subjects and will include the formal professional experience periods and additional in-school and community experiences.

Professional experience is a critical core component of all Faculty of Education preservice teacher education courses. Professional experiences are developmental and are completed sequentially to allow students to build upon earlier teaching/learning experiences and develop their professional competencies.

The professional experience program within each Teacher Education Course is a formal academic assessment that must be completed successfully in order for preservice teachers to pass their course. The supervising teacher is responsible for the assessment of the professional experience experience. In some instances the assessment may be in consultation with the in-school coordinator and Faculty of Education liaison lecturer. At the conclusion of each professional experience the supervising teacher is responsible for writing the professional experience report.

Regular written and oral feedback provided by the supervising teacher throughout the professional experience will ensure that the preservice teacher is fully aware of aspects of their teaching that require further development. This process will ensure that the final professional experience report presents no ‘surprises’ to the preservice teacher and that the report is an honest assessment of progress throughout the professional experience. The report should reflect the feedback provided to the preservice teacher on their lesson observation forms.

Professional experience reports are increasingly important particularly in terms of future employment and supervising teachers are asked to give detailed final reports. This report is not an employment reference but a true statement of progress that can be used to develop future teaching goals. Preservice teachers and supervisors should note that the Department of School Education will ask to see reports when an application is submitted for a teaching position.

The completed practice teaching report becomes a part of the student’s employment portfolio, therefore the original copy, completed electronically using typed font and signed in blue pen must be given to the student. A photocopy must be forwarded to the Faculty with all other professional experience documentation.

During their final professional experience a preservice teacher must demonstrate that they have attained the NSW Institute of Teachers Professional Teaching Standards prescribed for Graduate Teachers. Students must display the ability to carry out the duties required of a teacher and demonstrate commitment and enthusiasm towards the teaching profession.

Determining a Student Grade

At the conclusion of each professional experience the supervising teacher will determine whether the preservice teacher has made satisfactory progress in all three domains: Professional Knowledge, Professional Practice and Professional Commitment. If there is a significant weakness in one of more domain a preservice teacher should be assessed as not making satisfactory progress. In such instances a student will not be permitted to progress to the next professional experience in their course.

2.5 Identifying and Reporting students ‘At Risk’

A preservice teacher may be identified ‘at risk’ by either their supervising teacher or the in-school coordinator. ‘At risk’ indicates that a student is not making satisfactory progress and is unlikely to meet the expectations for the professional experience if the areas of concern are not addressed.

If a preservice teacher has not responded to feedback or directions from their supervising teacher or in-school coordinator and continues to either:

a) not meet the required standard of teaching for that professional experience or
b) breach school or Faculty policies and procedures they should be identified ‘at risk’.

Examples of reasons why a preservice teacher may be identified ‘at risk’ include:

- Breaches School and University policies
• Poor or inappropriate communication either in and/or out of the classroom with children and/or other school staff
• Failure to write lesson plans/programs and present to supervising teacher prior to lessons
• Poor attitude and behaviour that reflects disinterest in teaching as a profession
• Poor development of classroom management procedures
• Significant weakness in one or more of the three domains of teaching

It is essential preservice teachers are notified as early as possible in the professional experience the areas of their teaching or professional behaviour that need significant development. Early notification will reinforce the expectations of the professional experience and allow sufficient opportunity to address the concerns.

‘At Risk’ Process

Step 1: Initial Concerns and Support
The preservice teacher is notified through written and oral feedback of the areas of their teaching and/or professional behaviour that are of concern and offered support to address the concerns. NB: If a serious breach of school or Faculty policy occurs the in-school coordinator should contact the Faculty immediately and complete the ‘At Risk’ form.

Step 2: Ongoing concerns and Notification
Where concerns have not been addressed by the preservice teacher, the supervising teacher notifies the in-school professional experience coordinator as early as possible.

Step 3: The ‘At Risk’ form is completed. (page 1)
The supervising teacher, the in-school professional experience coordinator, and preservice teacher work together to evaluate the concerns and suggest possible strategies to improve the identified areas of concern/weakness.

Step 4: Addressing Concerns and Support Strategies
If, after the indicated time frame to address concerns, further unsatisfactory practice occurs after implementation of specific support - the school must contact the liaison lecturer to arrange a meeting at the school to discuss the preservice teachers unsatisfactory progress and complete page 2 of the notification form. The liaison lecturer must inform Deputy Director of the relevant program.

Step 5: Unsatisfactory progress continues.
The school notifies the liaison lecturer. After consultation with the teacher, liaison lecturer and the preservice teacher, the Professional Experience Director, or their Faculty representative will make final recommendations concerning future action.
3 THE SECOND YEAR PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Second year Bachelor of Teaching students are all placed in NSW Primary schools. These guidelines have been prepared to support both the supervising teacher and student teacher during this three-week professional experience.

3.1 Professional Experience Dates

Three week block.

3.2 Overall Outcomes of the Second Year Professional Experience

By the end of the Second Year professional experience students will have achieved the following:

- practiced and demonstrated developing abilities in basic teaching skills with both small groups and the whole class in an ongoing classroom situation;
- displayed awareness of the importance of interpersonal relations and communication skills and extended development of such skills in class and school activities;
- demonstrated an interest in children, their welfare and activities and growing confidence in working with them;
- gained experiences through observation and immersion in the six Key Learning Areas;
- observed and assisted the teacher in ongoing classroom and school activities;
- demonstrated the ability to plan, implement and evaluate lessons in the six Key Learning Areas;
- analysed and reflected on their own teaching practice with the view of improving that practice;
- recorded management/learning problems which arose as the size of the teaching group increased; and
- collected a range of resources used for lesson implementation across the school.
- taught each day of the professional experience;
- built up the daily teaching load to a whole day(s) of teaching;
- built up the teaching load to at least three consecutive whole day(s) of teaching;
- managed transitions from one lesson to the next, including lesson beginnings and endings;
- taught across all six KLAs or as many KLAs as possible for the assigned class; and
- completed a non-teaching professional task, such as preparation or organization of resources, assisting with other activities such as sport/excursions/clubs/assemblies.

3.3 Weekly Outcomes and Foci

3.3.1 Week One

It is expected that during the first week the supervising and preservice teachers will be able to clarify their respective expectations of the professional experience and for the student to get to know their professional experience class’ rules and routines and anticipated topics for their teaching (using the classroom teacher’s program as a guide). Student teaching can begin at the discretion of the supervising teacher, however it is expected that the teaching of whole lessons will occur by the third day of week one. During this week the students will be preparing for their teaching for the following weeks.

3.3.2 Week Two
In the second week of the block preservice teachers should plan and implement at least ten hours of teaching with activities that focus on individuals, small groups and whole class. Students will be working from their prepared teaching and learning program and or prepared lesson plans. The goal for the end of this week is for students to plan and teach a full session involving class organisation and/or consecutive lessons. Supervising teachers should provide written feedback to student teachers on at least five of these lessons.

3.3.3 Week Three
Students should complete at least fifteen hours of teaching, comprising at least 3 full days of teaching. The prepared teaching program and/or lesson plans will be in use and the supervising teachers should provide written feedback to student teachers on at least five of these lessons.

Professional Experience Teaching Reports and Related Documents

Electronic copies of the documents in this section may be downloaded from the Faculty of Education website. Supervising Teachers are encouraged to use the electronic report templates where possible.

Should you require any assistance with downloading these documents please contact Robyn Lumby in the Professional Experience Office.

The following report format follows the guidelines set down by the New South Wales Institute of Teachers (NSWIT). An evidence guide has been developed by the Faculty of Education in order to assist in the writing of this report.

Should you have any inquiries please contact the Primary Professional Experience Coordinator: Dr Phil Fitzsimmons (4221 4435) or if unavailable Dr. Nicola Johnson (4221 3878).

SUPERVISING TEACHER - LESSON FEEDBACK SHEET

This feedback sheet provides a structure for observing, reporting, reflecting and commenting on a particular lesson taught by a student. It should be used at least three times per week by the supervising teacher and discussed with the student as an addition to other oral and written comments that form the basis of the feedback provided for students throughout professional experience.
